General Information

Overview

This unit will introduce you to educational psychology, the area of behavioural science concerned with the application of psychological principles related to education and learning. Educational psychology is concerned with the entire lifespan. However, this unit focuses specifically on children and adolescents within key educational and learning contexts, such as schools and families. This unit presents an overarching framework within which psychological theories, practices, and research are applied to contemporary educational psychology practices. This incorporates a collaborative approach to enhance learning and development, supporting difference and diversity, and fostering the social and emotional wellbeing of young people.

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback

Feedback

Provision of weekly readings via Leganto Reading List.

Recommendation

Continue to review and update weekly readings to ensure relevance, ease of access and quality.

Feedback from Staff reflection

Feedback

Assessment 1 updates provided opportunities to explore unit content in-depth. Students who engaged with the task and feedback in the first half of the term consistently improved the quality of their responses and APA formatting.

Recommendation

Revise and update Assessment 1 questions to ensure they align to weekly content and Unit Learning Outcomes.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Apply knowledge of psychological theories, research and practices to educational psychology topics, issues and case studies
2. Integrate ethical and contextual considerations, such as cultural and societal factors, when appraising educational psychology topics, issues and cases
3. Analyse information for themes relating to the practice of educational psychology in a school environment
4. Communicate and collaborate effectively with peers.

Assessment Tasks

1 Focus Questions

Assessment Type
Online discussion forum

Task Description
A total of six (6) Focus Questions will be posted throughout the term. You will be given two (2) weeks to respond to each focus question – opening 9am Monday, closing two (2) weeks later at 9am Monday. For example, Focus Question 1 will be released on Monday of Week 1, and is due 9 am Monday of Week 3. Focus Question 2 will be released Monday of Week 3, and is due 9 am Monday of Week 5. A schedule of the Focus Question due dates is available on Moodle.
You are required to respond to a minimum of three (3) Focus Questions across the term. You will submit your Focus Question response in the relevant Focus Question Forum.
Focus Question 1 is compulsory – all students must post a response to this question. You may choose to respond to more than three questions over the term, and your three highest grades will make up your final grade for Assessment 1.

Assessment Due Date
Week 12 Monday (1 June 2020) 9:00 am AEST

A schedule of opening and closing dates for each question is posted on Moodle. The final focus question will be due on Monday of Week 12.

Return Date to Students
Exam Week Monday (15 June 2020)

Feedback for each focus question will be returned 2 weeks after the closing date.

Weighting
30%

Assessment Criteria
Each post will be marked out of 30 which will then be converted to a percentage – a mark of 30/30 equates to 10% [(x/30)*10]. Your final Assessment 3 grade will be the sum of your three highest grades from these focus questions.
Content (12 marks)
· Addresses question fully
· Evidence of critical thinking and synthesis of information (i.e. not just quotes or paraphrasing)
· Overall argument cohesion
General Format (10 marks)
· Word count within specified limit
· Minimum of two appropriate references
· Grammar, sentence structure and spelling
· APA formatting (i.e. left hand justify, paragraph indent, double spaced, etc.)

APA Referencing (8 marks)
· Format of references in-text
· Format of reference list

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?
A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?
A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?
For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre (ALC) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest
If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help
If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work
Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
