General Information

Overview

This unit introduces you to the Australian legal system, its institutions, processes and sources of law. It explores foundational principles and concepts, such as the Westminster system of governance, rule of law, doctrine of precedent and principles of statutory interpretation to provide you with insight into how the Australian legal system functions. The unit explores thinking, researching and communicating like a lawyer through the development of legal, ethical and technological literacy and a range of legal skills, which provides a foundation for your future law studies.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback

The assessment on corporations law was challenging

Recommendation

Review assessment to ensure the area of law covered in the assessment is not too challenging for first year students

Feedback from Unit Coordinator reflection

The favourable student feedback suggests the unit should continue to focus on developing practical and useful skills

Recommendation

Continue to offer the unit with a focus on building practical legal skills
