

ALLH11009 Research Methods for Health Professionals

Term 1 - 2019

Profile information current as at 03/05/2024 05:45 pm

All details in this unit profile for ALLH11009 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This introductory unit is designed to equip emerging Health professionals with essential research and study skills. In this unit you will identify the strengths and weaknesses of research designs and methodologies, and learn how to critically evaluate information from a variety of sources. You will also conduct a systematic information search of health-related literature, use bibliographic software, enhance your academic writing skills and select, analyse and interpret statistics.

- Rockhampton

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

This list is not an exhaustive list of all University policies. The full list of University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Evaluate and summarise information from a variety of sources within the health setting
2. Use effective search strategies to conduct a systematic information search of health-related literature
3. Identify the strengths and limitations of a variety of research designs and research methodologies used by Health professionals
4. Select, analyse and interpret basic statistical tests frequently used by Health professionals

1 Survival Guide to Research

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Briefly, students will be required to develop their very own 'Survival Guide to Research' that can be used as a valuable resource throughout their study. The guide will include details and descriptions on types of research, research methods, data collection and analysis and statistics.

Further detail, including the assessment Task Sheet and Criteria Sheet, are available on the ALLH11009 Moodle page under the 'Assessment' tab.

Assessment Due Date

Week 12 Monday (3 June 2019) 9:00 am AEST

Assessment Criteria

This assessment task will be graded against the following criteria:

1. Research Overview (20 marks)
2. Database and Information Search (5 marks)
3. Referencing and Plagiarism (5 marks)
4. EndNote (5 marks)
5. Types of Research (5 marks)
6. Research Methodology (5 marks)
7. Research Scenarios (5 marks)
8. Referencing (5 marks)
9. Overall Formatting, layout and presentation (5 marks)

2 Online Content Quizzes

Assessment Type

Online Test

Task Description

Content covered throughout the semester will be assessed in a series of online content quizzes. There will be 3 online content quizzes in total.

Each quiz will consist of 30 multiple choice or true/false questions, and will be open to students for a duration of 7 days, as outlined below:

1. Online Content Quiz 1 - Opens Monday Week 5 (8 April 2019) 9am AEST, closes Monday Break Week (15 April 2019) 9am AEST
2. Online Content Quiz 2 - Opens Monday Week 9 (13 May 2019) 9am AEST, closes Monday Week 10 (20 May 2019) 9am AEST
3. Online Content Quiz 3 - Opens Monday Week 12 (3 June 2019) 9am AEST, closes Monday Exam Review Week (10 June 2019) 9am AEST

The total scores from each of the 3 online content quizzes will be tallied to determine the overall mark out of 90. The total score will then be converted to a % score out of a maximum 20%.

Further detail is available on the ALLH11009 Moodle page under the 'Assessment' tab.

3 Online Statistical Analysis Quiz

Assessment Type

Online Test

Task Description

This online statistical analysis quiz will test your knowledge, understanding and operational ability of basic statistical analysis skills.

Students will be required to identify the appropriate statistical analysis test, perform the analysis and interpret the results of 4 datasets. Students will then be required to use their results to answer 40 multiple choice or true/false questions.

This quiz will be open to students for a duration of 7 days. It will open Monday Week 11 (27 May 2019) at

9am AEST, and close Monday Week 12 (3 June 2019) at 9am AEST

Further detail is available on the ALLH11009 Moodle page under the 'Assessment' tab.

Grades and feedback will be returned to students upon the closure of the quiz

Weighting

20%

Assessment Criteria

This assessment task will be graded against the following criteria.

Students ability to:

1. Identify appropriate statistical analysis to run
2. Run statistical analysis / test
3. Interpret analysis output
4. Draw conclusions from the analysis output

Students are then required to answer 40 multiple choice or true/false questions (based on the above actions).

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
