General Information

Overview

This unit will introduce you to the principles of evidence-based practice (EBP) and develop your key skills for conducting EBP within clinical settings as an Allied Health Professional. You will be introduced to models of EBP that can be used to guide clinical decision making at an individual patient level and also at a service delivery level, and be required to identify the impacts of EBP on current practice across a variety of fields. During this unit you will gain experience in developing clinically answerable questions, performing information searches, undertaking critical appraisal and synthesising information.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unsolicited Student Feedback - Discussion Forum

Feedback

It would be helpful to have a video that outlines and explains the assessment tasks to accommodate auditory learners, in addition to the written instructions.

Recommendation

It is recommended that in addition to written instructions, the Unit Coordinator create a short instructional video for assessment tasks that outlines and explains the assessment requirements to support the auditory learners in the student cohort.

Feedback from Unit Evaluation

Feedback

This unit builds upon previous first year units and has helped students to become more effective and efficient at critically reviewing different types of evidence.

Recommendation

It is recommended that this unit continue to expand on content taught in Year 1 and the content in this unit continues to focus on developing students' knowledge and understanding of critical appraisal and its important role in ensuring evidence-informed practice as a health professional.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Formulate a clinical research question using the PICO (Population-Intervention-Comparison-Outcome) format
2. Plan, carry out and evaluate information searches to address specific clinical questions
3. Critically appraise and evaluate the quality of original research within health professions using established critical appraisal tools

Term Specific Information

This unit consists of lectorial videos, H5P activities and tutorials.

Lectorials are a series of short pre-recorded videos that provide fundamental knowledge.

H5P activities consist of various types of activities and are usually situated between lectorial videos, as they are designed to help reinforce your theoretical knowledge and understanding.

Tutorials are designed to enable you to apply your theoretical understanding in a practical manner.

It is expected that you work through all lectorials and H5P activities prior to attending your weekly tutorial.

IMPORTANT:

You can attend the weekly tutorials live (online via Zoom) or if you are unable to attend the live tutorials, you can engage with the tutorial recording, which is uploaded to the ALLH12006 Moodle page within 2 working days. It is NOT a requirement of this unit that you attend the live weekly tutorials. However, it is strongly encouraged.

The weekly tutorials have been scheduled for a Friday afternoon from 3.30 pm - 5.30 pm AEST.

To access the weekly tutorial (live zoom link and recording), simply click on the 'VIRTUAL CLASSES | WEEKLY TUTORIALS' tile, located on the ALLH12006 Moodle Page.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
