Term 1 - 2021

Profile information current as at 04/05/2024 05:20 pm

All details in this unit profile for ALLH13011 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will develop a broad understanding of rural and remote health, and the role that health professionals play within this context. You will identify and evaluate current issues and priorities for rural and remote health from a range of stakeholder perspectives. You will develop an applied project that requires you to further exercise your critical thinking and problem-solving skills to generate new and innovative solutions to current rural and remote inequities. Finally, you will communicate your project findings to a broad allied health community via an allied health online forum/conference.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Term Specific Information

This unit consists of weekly lectorials and tutorials.

The lectorials involve a series of pre-recorded lectures, broken up by various practical and applied activities (also referred to as electronic focused interactive learning (eFIL) activities), designed to further enhance your understanding of important theoretical content and concepts. The lectorials are available at least two weeks in advance via the ALLH13011 Rural and Remote Practice for Health Professionals Moodle page, and can be completed in your own time. However, it is an expectation that you complete all of the lectorial materials prior to attending the tutorial each week. The tutorials involve a live face-to-face session, delivered in person-via the Rockhampton North Campus, and also streamed live via Zoom for all other students wishing to participate. These tutorials are designed to provide real world worked examples relevant to the theoretical content and concepts. They provide further authentic learning experiences, thought provoking discussion and are designed to support all learning styles through fun, engaging and interactive activities. Whilst all students are encouraged to attend the tutorials, they will be recorded and made readily available within three (3) working days of delivery, via the ALLH13011 Rural and Remote Practice for Health Professionals Moodle page. The link to access the weekly tutorials is also accessible via the ALLH13011 Rural and Remote Practice for Health Professionals Moodle page. You can download Zoom and create an account via your MyCQU Student Portal Homepage: <https://my.cqu.edu.au/support> under the IT HELP section.

Assessment Tasks

1 Challenges of rural and remote health care

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

For this assessment task, you are required to identify and evaluate a current health-related challenge being experienced in rural and remote communities. To do this, you are required to draw on appropriate literature to address:

- What is the challenge?
- Where and who does this challenge affect?
- How and why is this challenge unique (or more prevalent) to rural/remote communities?
- What are the social underpinnings of this problem?
- What is the impact of this challenge on patients' and/or community health?

Please refer to the ALLH13011 Rural and Remote Practice for Health Professionals Moodle page for additional information, including a detailed task description.

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Friday (23 Apr 2021) 9:00 am AEST

Return Date to Students

Week 8 Friday (7 May 2021)

NOTE: If your assessment is not submitted in accordance with the due date, grades and feedback will be returned two weeks after submission date.

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

For this task, you will be graded against the following criteria:

- Evaluate data to demonstrate rural/remote prevalence, and the population/s and community or communities affected
- Critically analyse research and statistical data to demonstrate rural/remote health inequalities and their social underpinnings
- Academic writing
- Appropriate referencing, in accordance with APA referencing requirements

Total weighting of this task: 40% of overall grade

Please refer to the ALLH13011 Rural and Remote Practice for Health Professionals Moodle page for additional information, including a detailed criteria sheet.

2 What could be done to improve rural and remote health care?

Assessment Type

Project (applied)

Task Description

For this assessment task, you are required to build on your completed Assessment Task 1. Specifically, you are required to develop an applied project that draws on appropriate literature and statistics to:

- Discuss what is currently being done to alleviate/remove/resolve the inequity/inequality you previously outlined in Assessment Task 1?
- Discuss the strengths, weaknesses, threats and opportunities associated with the current approach/s?
- Propose a socially innovative solution (opportunity) to reduce the health inequality?
- Outline the potential impact your solution might have on people and/or communities?

Please refer to the ALLH13011 Rural and Remote Practice for Health Professionals Moodle page for additional information, including a detailed task description.

Assessment Due Date

Week 9 Friday (14 May 2021) 9:00 am AEST

Return Date to Students

Week 11 Friday (28 May 2021)

NOTE: If your assessment is not submitted in accordance with the due date, grades and feedback will be returned two weeks after submission date.

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

For this task, you will be graded against the following criteria:

- Critically analyse existing health-related programs
- Identify and succinctly discuss opportunities to improve rural health in specific Australian locations
- Succinctly detail a socially innovative project to address to outlined opportunity
- Academic writing
- Appropriate referencing, in accordance with APA referencing requirements

Total weighing of this task: 40% of overall grade

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
