General Information

Overview

In this capstone research unit, you will complete work initiated in Research Project for Health Professionals 1. You will further your critical thinking and analytical skills through the completion of your research project which will advance your level of knowledge in a specialised area related to health. You will need to evaluate and synthesise your research findings within the context of health literature to identify future opportunities to extend health research. In addition, you will be required to communicate your research findings in a professional manner and identify the clinical relevance of these outcomes to your discipline.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from 'SUTE' survey

Students highlighted the benefit of being able to discuss ideas, questions, feedback, and translation of skills within a supportive environment.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Moodle forums and weekly tutorials continue to offer a supportive discussion space in which both unit coordinator/lecturer and students can share constructive ideas, questions, suggestions, and feedback as a group.

Feedback

Students indicated the importance of having clear and specified unit requirements and learning materials.

Recommendation

It is recommended that unit requirements and learning materials continue to be discussed early in the term, so that students can be aware of the unit aims and expectations, weekly activities, and assessment information, as early as possible.
