ALLH14001 Research Project for Health Professionals 2
Term 1 - 2025

Profile information current as at 22/11/2024 12:27 am

General Information

Overview

In this capstone research unit, you will complete work initiated in Research Project for Health Professionals 1. You will further your critical thinking and analytical skills through the completion of your research project which will advance your level of knowledge in a specialised area related to health. You will need to evaluate and synthesise your research findings within the context of health literature to identify future opportunities to extend health research. In addition, you will be required to communicate your research findings in a professional manner and identify the clinical relevance of these outcomes to your discipline.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses
Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from 'SUTE' survey

Feedback
Students indicated that having examples and the opportunity to discuss the presentation and layout of research papers was helpful for their understanding of what would be expected in their own manuscript.

Recommendation
It is recommended that examples and tutorial discussions regarding the presentation and layout of research tasks and disseminations continue, thereby allowing students to translate the learnings to their own research tasks.

Feedback
Students highlighted that the Moodle site was easy to follow and provided clear direction for weekly tasks.

Recommendation
It is recommended that the Moodle site remain consistent in providing direction for weekly tasks relevant to the progression of students' research. Weekly 'key tasks' presented via Moodle Forum Announcements and/or email are also recommended.

Feedback
Students indicated that the online tutorials were interactive and supportive.

Recommendation
It is recommended that weekly tutorials continue to provide interactive reflection of the week's learning content and a supportive atmosphere for students to openly discuss their research progress and queries.
