General Information

Overview

Aviation Marketing will explore the highly specific marketing associated with the aviation industry. This unit will introduce you to a comprehensive overview of the fundamental and important concepts, theories and principles of marketing and how they are applied to the aviation industry. You will gain insights into advanced-level aviation business knowledge in the areas of marketing channels, sales management, advertising, research, consumer behaviour, communications, yield management and alliances. This unit will equip aviation professionals with specific marketing knowledge required to accomplish an organisation's goals in new and creative ways.
