General Information

Overview

As a health care professional, you will encounter clients whose mental health challenges impact upon their daily lives. In this unit you will develop knowledge that will assist in your recognition of mental illness as a health care professional, and learn about the appropriate referral networks and therapeutic options that are available to assist with these issues. Your ability to communicate effectively with clients, with consideration and awareness of their cultural backgrounds and beliefs, will be developed as part of this unit.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE

Feedback

Some students reported the assessment information and marking rubric were not clear enough, while others appreciated the flexible and open ended structure of the essay.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the unit coordinator strengthen clarity of assessments, particularly the essay, by refining the assessment instructions and rubric, while also retaining the valued flexibility of the essay structure.

Feedback from SUTE

Feedback

Some students felt the assessment sections were not complete and additional information was provided within the tutorials and lectures

Recommendation

It is recommended that the unit coordinator will ensure all information related to assessments are provided in the relevant assessment section in Moodle.
