General Information

Overview

This unit provides the essential skills and techniques for designing, implementing and evaluating research in business contexts. It provides an in-depth introduction to the critical thinking and planning required in the initial stages of a thesis or research project. You will undertake research problem definition, design a research project, development of a literature review, consider qualitative and quantitative methods, measurement concepts, qualitative and quantitative data analysis, reporting and presentation of results with the final outcome of the unit being the development of a research proposal. This unit is designed as the pre-requisite for the work you will undertake in your final year capstone unit Professional Project.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback

Lecture sessions have to be short and sharp targeting the key concepts and methods of business research.

Recommendation

The unit coordinator will review and revise all lecture sessions targeting the key concepts and methods of business research.

Feedback

The assessment items were very well linked to the unit contents

Recommendation

The unit coordinator will maintain the current assessment items.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. formulate problems in business studies into a concise and precise research question;
2. develop and employ ethical practices that consider social, cultural and legal responsibilities of researchers and the research process;
3. critically evaluate published academic research, identify secondary data sources, and review extant literature, to develop a theoretical framework for a business problem or opportunity;
4. choose and apply the appropriate research strategies (qualitative and/or quantitative) and techniques to best address the research problem;
5. demonstrate the application of data analysis techniques and measurement concepts; and
6. prepare and communicate a comprehensive research proposal.
