Assessment Tasks

1 Assessment One

Assessment Type

Annotated bibliography

Task Description

Assessment One is based upon the case study described below.

The following information outlines the case study and the specific requirements for Assessment One (Please note that Assessment Two is also based upon the following case study).

The Case Study

You are a communication consultant. You were asked by the Felicity King, the CEO of AgriGrood, to review the internal INTERCULTURAL communication processes within AgriGrood. AgriGrood, is a large multinational manufacturing business, specialising in the production of farming equipment. The head office is in Melbourne. There are also offices in Madrid, Spain and Bogotá, Columbia. Having conducted a communication audit, you have identified that there are several problems with the intercultural communication between the head office and the regional offices.

The Requirements

For this assessment, you will need to think about one potential problem or challenge that international organisations face in terms of internal intercultural communication. Please reflect on what you have learned about intercultural communication in this unit. The problem that you address must show sophistication of knowledge and logic of thought. Simply identifying that organisational members do not speak the same language is not a sophisticated approach to this assessment. Similarly, focusing upon mediated interpersonal interaction is not logical given the focus of the case study.

To accomplish this task, you first need to write up an annotated bibliography. Writing an annotated bibliography is an important first step because the annotated bibliography will help you find the evidence for your presentation. You must pick THREE articles from journals listed on the Required Journal List (RJL--you will find this document in the Assessment Tile in Moodle). You must ONLY use articles from journals listed on the RJL. Failure to do so will impact your mark for this part of the assessment. Please make sure you paraphrase. Do not directly copy information from the journal article abstract. You must include a reference list (APA 7th Edition). Each entry should be between 500 words in length (1500 max length).

For each article in your annotated bibliography, you include:

1. An overview of the main focus or purpose or aim of the article (e.g., This article focuses on);
2. A summary of the theory, definitions of the main variables or concepts, and, if applicable, the research methods (e.g., qualitative, quantitative, or mixed methods);
3. A description of the findings, results and/or conclusions; and
4. An SPECIFIC and LOGICAL explanation of how this article will fit into your presentation (This article will fit into the presentation).

You must include a reference list at the end of your bibliography (APA 7th edition)

Assessment Due Date

The annotated bibliography is due Week Five (11th August, 2023) 11:59 PM. You must upload your file as a word document.

Return Date to Students

The marks will be released two weeks after the due date (subject to the completion of the marking moderation).

2 Assessment Two - Part One and Part Two

Assessment Type

Presentation

Task Description

The following information outlines part one and part two of Assessment Two.

Part one - The Sentence-Level-Speaking-Outline (SLSO)

The SLSO is an outline of the information (including referenced information and reference list) contained within the presentation. Having developed this document, you can then use it to develop your speaking notes. There are some examples of a SLSO on Moodle (please see the Assessment Tile). The SLSO must include the 5 academic journal references from journals listed on the required journal list (RJL). You may choose to include the three articles that you wrote about in your annotated bibliography. You will reference the information from these journal articles in-text and include the articles within a reference list in the SLSO (APA 7th Edition).

As a general guide, the SLSO should be around 500-700 words in length. Please remember this document is not a verbatim transcript of what you are going to say in your presentation. It is a sketch or an outline of what you plan to say. Having developed your SLSO you can then start on your video presentation. You will present and record a presentation, using PowerPoint. The video presentation must include both the powerpoint slides and an image of the person who is speaking. The presentation must include the 5 academic references you used in your SLSO (Within your presentation you must orally cite your references and include a reference list at the end of your powerpoint slides (APA 7th Edition)). Part two - The Individual Video Presentation (IVP)

The Video Presentation should be nine to ten (9-10) minutes in length. The introduction should be two (2) minutes in length. The body of the presentation should be around six to seven (6 - 7) minutes while the conclusion should be around one (1) minute. It is important that you keep to time—do not go over. Information presented after the 10 minute limit will not be evaluated for marking purposes. Please practice your presentation in advance so that you know it is the correct length. You can use Zoom to record your video presentation (please see Moodle for more instructions about recording and uploading your presentation).

Assessment Due Date

The SLSO is due in Week 8 (Monday 4th September) at 11:59 PM. The IVP is due Week 10 (Friday 22nd September) at 11:59 PM

Return Date to Students

The SLSO and Video Presentation marks will be released two weeks after the individual due date (subject to the completion of the marking moderation).

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
