Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from This concern arises from the student evaluations.

Feedback

The quality of the feedback and the timely provision of this feedback.

Recommendation

This issue has been raised at a school level and the unit coordinator will endeavour to follow the guidance provided. The unit coordinator will continue to speak with the teaching team and provide examples of good feedback. All assessment will be scheduled in a manner that maximises the usefulness of the assessment for student learning.

Feedback from This is a schoolwide requirement.

Feedback

The teaching and learning activities and resources need to be reviewed for relevancy and recency.

Recommendation

The unit coordinator will undertake a review of the teaching and learning activities and resources for Term Three, 2023.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Recognize advanced knowledge and skills required in written, oral, and interpersonal communication to address complex business problems
2. Apply professional business writing and oral communication skills to effectively inform or persuade a target audience
3. Deliver effective presentations to transmit knowledge, skills and ideas to both specialist and non-specialist audiences and achieve business objectives
4. Critically analyse communication challenges faced by organisations by applying established theories to develop innovative strategies to address them
5. Apply autonomous thinking to reflect on good practices in workplace communication in different organizational contexts

Assessment Tasks

1 Assessment One

Assessment Type

Annotated bibliography

Task Description

Requirements: Both Assessment One and Assessment Two are based upon the following case study. The following information outlines the case study and the specific requirements for Assessment One and Assessment Two.

The Case: You are a communication consultant. You were asked by Mr. Alex Rex, the CEO of Peterson and Sons, PTY, to review the internal MEDIATED communication processes within the business. Peterson and Sons, PTY, is a small manufacturing business producing widgets for ebikes. When Mr. Rex briefed you, he stated that there were no problems within the manufacturing plant. However, he felt that the internal MEDIATED communication within the head office was problematic. The head office consists of the executive team, a marketing department, a sales department, and a small HRM group. Having conducted a communication audit, you have identified that there are two main problems or challenges with the internal MEDIATED business communication within the head office.

Your Role: In your capacity as a communication consultant hired by Mr. Alex Rex, your responsibility is to identify two specific problems or challenges and propose considered and actioned recommendations/solutions to these challenges. Based upon the identified problems or challenges and recommendations you will prepare and record a video. This video will be shared with all employees within the head office.

Other: For this assessment, you will need to think about two potential problems or challenges that small nationally based organisations face in terms of internal MEDIATED communication. Please reflect on what you have learned about MEDIATED communication in this unit. As a further note, please remember that MEDIATED interaction takes place on many levels from interpersonal (person to person), to small group (meetings), to organisational (inter-departmental). You will not be able to focus on all levels, so make sure you keep your focus narrowed. The problem that you address must show sophistication of knowledge and logic of thought. Simply identifying that organisational members do not speak to one another or use poorly written email is not a sophisticated approach to this assessment. Similarly, focusing upon intercultural interaction is not logical given the focus of the case study on MEDIATED communication.

The recommendations must be sophisticated and logical. Sophisticated recommendations will clearly draw upon accepted and credible communication principals, concepts and theories relating to MEDIATED internal business communication. The recommendations are logical in that they are relevant to the identified problems or challenges and supported by credible evidence.

Assessment One: To accomplish this task, you first need to write up an annotated bibliography. Writing an annotated bibliography is an important first step because the annotated bibliography will help you find the evidence for your presentation. You must pick THREE articles from journals listed on the Required Journal List (RJL--you will find this document in the Assessment Tile in Moodle). You must ONLY use articles from journals listed on the RJL. Using articles from the RJL will ensure that you are using credible and relevant information to support your response to the case. Failure to do so will impact your mark for this part of the assessment. Please make sure you paraphrase. Do not directly copy information from the journal article abstract. Points will be deducted for Annotated Bibliographies with a Turnitin overlap score of 20% or higher. You must include a reference list (APA 7th Edition). Each entry should be between 500 words in length (1500 max. length).

For each article in your annotated bibliography, you will

1. provide an overview of the topical focus of this article, and discuss how the topical focus of the article relates to the specific case study?
2. provide a SPECIFIC and LOGICAL explanation of how you will use the information from this article into your presentation (This article will be used in this presentation to . . . [e.g., define, illustrate, demonstrate, support]).

Ask yourself: Are you going to cite a definition or a finding? Are you going to quote or paraphrase to illustrate a concept or principal or support an argument? Please include your quotation or paraphrased information.

3. You must include a reference list (separate page) at the end of your bibliography (APA 7th edition).

Other: It is recommended that each entry consists of two paragraphs—the overview of the topical focus of the article and the explanation of how the article will fit in to your presentation.

Assessment Due Date

Week 5 Friday (5 Apr 2024) 11:45 pm AEST

The annotated bibliography is due Week Five (5th April, Friday) 11:59 PM (AEST). You must upload your file as a word document.

Return Date to Students

Week 7 Monday (22 Apr 2024)

The marks will be released two weeks after the due date (subject to the completion of the marking moderation).

Assessment Criteria

The Annotated Bibliography is evaluated based on the following assessment criteria:

1. Three individual bibliographic entries - 6 marks each -18 marks in total.
2. Written presentation - 2 marks
3. References-3 marks

Assessment One is worth 23 marks.

2 Assessment Two - Part One and Part Two

Assessment Type

Presentation

Task Description

The following information describes part one and part two of Assessment Two.

Assessment Two--Part One: The SLSO is an outline of the information (including referenced information and reference list) contained within the presentation. Having developed this document, you can then use it to develop your speaking notes. There are some examples of SLSOs on Moodle (please see the Assessment Tile).

References: The SLSO must include the 5 academic journal references from journals listed on the required journal list (RJL). You may choose to include the three articles that you wrote about in your annotated bibliography. You will reference the information from these journal articles in-text and include the articles within a reference list in the SLSO (APA 7th Edition).

Length: As a general guide, the SLSO should be around 500-700 words in length. Please remember this document is not a verbatim transcript of what you are going to say in your presentation. It is a sketch or an outline of what you plan to say.

Assessment Two--Part Two: Having developed your SLSO you can then start on your video presentation. The video presentation must include no more than five PowerPoint slides (excluding the presentation title slide and the reference slide(s)) and an image of the person who is speaking.

References: The presentation must include the five (5) academic references you included in your SLSO (Within your presentation you must orally cite your references and include a reference list at the end of you PowerPoint Slides (APA 7th Edition).

Length: The Video Presentation should be nine to ten (9-10) minutes in length. The introduction should be two (2) minutes in length. The body of the presentation should be around six to seven (6-7) minutes while the conclusion should be around one (1) minute. It is important that you keep to time—do not go over. Information presented after the 10-minute limit will not be evaluated for marking purposes. Please practice your presentation in advance so that you know it is the correct length. You can use Zoom to record your video presentation (please see Moodle for more instructions about recording and uploading your presentation).

Presentation: You must deliver your presentation and not read your presentation from you SLSO and/or PowerPoint Slides—think of your delivery as a conversation with the audience. Delivery is important but an excellent delivery will not 'save' a poor presentation content. Excellent delivery complements exceptional content resulting in a memorable presentation.

Assessment Due Date

The SLSO is due in Week 8 (29th April, Monday) at 11:59 PM (AEST) The individual video presentation is due Week 11 (24th May, Friday) at 11:59 PM (AEST)

Return Date to Students

The SLSO marks will be released two weeks after the individual due date (subject to the completion of the marking moderation). The individual video presentation marks will be available on the certification date.

Weighting

32%

Assessment Criteria

The SLSO is evaluated based on the following criteria:

1. The format - 3 marks
2. The written presentation - 3 marks
3. The use of journals from the Required Journal List (RJL) and correct application of the APA (7th Edition) referencing style - 3 marks.

This part of Assessment Two is worth 9 marks.

The video presentation is evaluated based on the following criteria:

1. The introduction - 5 marks
2. The body - 10 marks
3. The conclusion - 3 marks
4. The delivery - 5 marks

This part of Assessment Two is worth 23 marks.

The combined parts of Assessment Two is worth 32 marks.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
