

CART11007 Acting 1: Beginning the Story

Term 1 - 2018

Profile information current as at 30/04/2024 05:03 pm

All details in this unit profile for CART11007 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit you will develop fundamental acting techniques including stagecraft, mime and improvisational theatre. Stagecraft involves the technical aspects and terminology of the theatre. Mime encourages actors to think about their bodies and how they can act without speech. Improvisational theatre has a long history, and provides several key techniques necessary to actors.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Karen Crone

Feedback

Teaching in off campus dance studio facilities are not suitable for acting classes. We are confined by other activities within the dance studio and travelling to and from campus on a constant basis causes unnecessary stresses for the students.

Recommendation

Investigate alternative facilities with the Dean of school.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Develop dialogue, action, story and characters whilst engaging in improvisations
2. Apply basic theatre terminology
3. Create and perform a rehearsed mime using techniques of shaping and structuring skills for performance
4. Perform in a university production.

Assessment Tasks

1 Assessment: Apply Mime Techniques

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

Apply Mime Techniques to explore character, action and scene ideas, supported by effective stage craft. Under direction from your Lecturer, apply your understanding of mime techniques to explore possible ideas for character types, scene actions and scene narratives towards establishing non-dialogue elements to be included within the end of term project: Production One. Demonstrate and contribute original ideas, follow direction, and apply appropriate stagecraft and awareness of theater terminology. While this assessment will be guided through direction, you are required to contribute original creative ideas, both at the commencement of the task, and throughout the collaboration between director and performer.

3 Assessment: Production One

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

Demonstrate a combined application of Stagecraft, Mime & Improvisation. Performance One is a confluence of applied stagecraft, mime and improvisation skills in rehearsing, developing and performing an initial first year University Production to an invited audience. It is the major assessment for the Unit CART11007 Beginning the Story, and it is a proof of concept demonstration of the applied skills and knowledge that the students have developed in Term One. Students will be required to deliver a directed and collaboratively developed performance that demonstrates their developed skills in stagecraft, mime and narrative storytelling, developed through studio application of improvisation, mime and rehearsal techniques.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
