Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Assessment Tasks

1 Apply mime, movement and improvisation techniques.

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

Having trained in fundamental skills of acting over the first half of the term, this assessment is to validate that you have understood and retained a demonstrated capacity to apply these skills in a workshop situation. In small groups of 2 to 5 players, you will undertake a series of exercises and studio tasks, under the direction of your lecturer, to demonstrate applied skills in this area. The focus of these exercises will be on the skill areas of mime, movement and improvisation. You will also need to demonstrate applied use of basic voice and stagecraft knowledge as developed through the course so far. Although you are working with partners, you will be assessed individually on your own contribution and responses to exercises and tasks, as observed by your tutor. Performance of other students will not impact on your individual assessment. The exercises and tasks will be modeled on the program of learning delivered through the course. For this reason your attendance at all classes leading up to this assessment is required. If you do not meet a 90% attendance rate of scheduled studio classes you will be required to provide formal evidence for your absence as per university policies, or you may be graded as AF (Absent Fail) to avoid disadvantaging your peers in assessment.

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Friday (26 Apr 2019) 5:00 pm AEST

Assessment Tasks will be undertaken in scheduled studio time in Week Six, with all tasks to be completed by 5:00PM Friday 26th April 2019.

Return Date to Students

Week 7 Friday (3 May 2019)

Feedback on assessment to be returned to students via Moodle site within one week of assessment.

Weighting

2 Self Devised Group Presentation

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

In small groups of 2 to 5 students you will develop, under the direction of your tutor, an original work for theatrical presentation of at least 10 minutes duration. You are required to demonstrate applied improvisation skills in the conception and development of the work. The work should include use of mime and movement skills, along with suitable use of stagecraft knowledge and applied use of voice appropriate to the piece. This is a work of collaboration between yourself, other students and the lecturer as an ensemble group. Although you are working with partners, you will be assessed individually on your own contribution to the development, work shopping, rehearsal and presentation of the work, as observed by your tutor in scheduled classes and rehearsals. Performance of other students will not impact on your individual assessment. For this reason your attendance at all classes leading up to this assessment is required. If you do not meet a 90% attendance rate of scheduled studio classes you will be required to provide formal evidence for your absence as per university policies, or you may be graded as AF (Absent Fail).

Assessment Due Date

Review/Exam Week Friday (14 June 2019) 7:00 pm AEST

Assessment will be presented live as performance and recorded for assessment records.

Return Date to Students

Exam Week Friday (21 June 2019)

Results will be graded on Moodle and released to students within a week of the assessment.

Weighting

60%

Assessment Criteria

1. Attendance of at least 90% of all scheduled classes and rehearsals leading up to the presentation of the original work.
2. Ability to follow direction.
3. Demonstrated use of improvisation skills in the conception and development of the work.
4. Demonstrated use of movement and mime skills within the presentation of the work.
5. Demonstrated use of applied stagecraft and voice skills as appropriate to the rehearsal and presentation of the work.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
