Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

2 Research essay

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Task: Write an essay on ONE of the topics provided below:

Topic 1: Tragedy on the stage

The themes of tragedy have intrigued playwrights for centuries and allowed them to explore various views of the world and the human condition. Select two important playwrights of tragedy from the late 19th or 20th century and compare and contrast their work to the ideas of tragedy as outlined by Aristotle in his Poetics. You must include primary source materials as part of your argument, this includes relevant excerpts from various play scripts by these writers that will support your argument. You may include links to images and Youtube clips, appropriately referenced. You may choose from the following playwrights: Henrik Ibsen, August Strindberg, Eugene O'Neill, Anton Chekhov or Tennessee Williams. If you would like to consider other playwrights, please check with your lecturer before commencing this assignment.

Topic 2: Theatre as an agent for social change

Satire has often been used by playwrights to highlight perceived hypocrisy, political injustice and social inequality. With reference to two important playwrights from the late 19th or 20th century, discuss how they have used satire as an agent for social and political change through their works for the stage. You must include primary source materials as part of your argument, this includes relevant excerpts from various play scripts by these writers that will support your argument. You may include links to images and Youtube clips, appropriately referenced. You may choose from the following playwrights: Oscar Wilde, George Bernard Shaw, John Millington Synge, Bertolt Brecht, Tom Stoppard, or Edward Albee. If you would like to consider other playwrights, please check with your lecturer before commencing this assignment.

Presentation:

- This assignment is to be saved as a Word document and submitted online through the course website.
- Use 12 point Times New Roman font.
- 1.5 spacing throughout
- Sub-headings may be used as appropriate.
- In-text referencing should be used throughout to show the sources of your information, even if this is paraphrased into your own words.
- All direct quotes from primary sources, including diagrams and pictures should include an in-text reference, and full details included in the Reference List.
- Do not rely solely on web-based sources. On-line research sources obtained from peer reviewed journals or academic databases are acceptable. Any internet sources used must be scholarly and accredited. Citations from Wikipedia, Sparksnotes, or similar websites are not to be used under any circumstances.

Length: 2000 - 2500 words

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
