Term 1 - 2020

Profile information current as at 15/05/2024 07:53 am

All details in this unit profile for CART12003 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will build upon fundamental music theory and production knowledge and begin to develop skills in the area of songwriting and electronic music composition. You will study a range of musical styles that will inform the development of your own original composition in a chosen genre. You will continue classes in music production and begin to explore advanced audio signal flow and studio practice.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

This list is not an exhaustive list of all University policies. The full list of University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback

Feedback

The songwriting components and music production components of this unit could be separated allowing a deeper level of engagement in specialised content.

Recommendation

Create a music production major that will allow students the opportunity to more specialise in either music or music production.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Evaluate song writing processes of contemporary popular music styles
2. Apply song writing processes in the creation of an original song and electronic music composition
3. Apply appropriate notation to represent your original compositions
4. Demonstrate an understanding of audio signal flow and multi-microphone techniques in the recording studio.

4 Studio Signal Flow

Assessment Type

In-class Test(s)

Task Description

Assessment four of CART12003 is comprised of two practical in-class tests held during your normal lesson times in week 4 and 7.

Console signal flow

The signal flow test will be held during regular class time in Week 4. You are required to perform a series of tasks as instructed by your lecturer that are normally required in an analogue recording studio environment. These tasks may include:

- Routing signal to tape
- Monitoring signal post tape
- Creating a head phone mix
- Assigning IO in Pro Tools

Drum Micing

The drum micing test will be held during regular class time in Week 7. You are required to perform a series of tasks as instructed by your lecturer that normally required to mic up a drum kit for a recording session. These tasks may include:

- Choosing appropriate microphone for each instrument
- Choosing appropriate placement for each microphone
- Using a stereo overhead configuration
- Line checking each microphone

Further information:

- Marks are assigned based on the difficulty of the question and the format.
- A time limit of 30 minutes will be assigned per test.
- Only one attempt will be permitted of each test.
- The two in-class tests will collectively contribute 25% of a student's mark.

Assessment Due Date

Week 7 Wednesday (29 Apr 2020) 2:00 pm AEST

In class tests are held during regular class time in week 4 & 7.

Return Date to Students

Week 9 Friday (15 May 2020)

After they have been marked results will be uploaded to the Moodle gradebook.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
