Profile information current as at 03/05/2024 02:56 pm

All details in this unit profile for CART12008 have been officially approved by CQU University and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will learn a standard American accent and a standard English accent. You will work on your voice developing your articulation, vocal resonance and projection. You will examine different accents using international scripts. You will explore the different techniques required to perform in a theatrical setting and in a recording studio. You will present your work in two different styles, standard performance and radio play.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Term Specific Information

The unit THE ACTOR AND THE SPOKEN WORD will be delivered by Karen Crone. The fundamentals of this unit are bedded in the techniques of voice, particularly accents. You will be able to access an on-line tutorial about voice and singing, which will have elements that can underpin your learning in this unit. We will be utilising our recording studios for this unit, recording your vocals for critique and reflection. This can be at times one of the most difficult aspects of being a professional artist - looking back objectively at your work. This unit of study will give you the tools required for developing accents. You will be required to listen and view a wide range of theatrical presentations dealing with accents.

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

You will select two historical periods discussed in class, and will write a 1000 word essay (max) researching the theatrical tenets of the time. You will consider these historical theatrical periods in the context of the accepted conventions of the time. How has technology influenced theatre practice and presentation? How has the social and political climate of the time impacted on theatre practice and presentation? You may also consider how, if any of these historical periods characteristics, have left a mark on our contemporary theatre.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
