Term 1 - 2019

Profile information current as at 06/05/2024 02:41 am

All details in this unit profile for CART13001 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit you will plan and implement a creative arts project that will further develop your practice within your major. The parameters of the project will be negotiated with the teaching staff and approved by the Unit Coordinator. It is expected that this project will require a minimum of 10 to 12 hours per week of self-directed study. This project may be undertaken on your own or in a group. You will also critique the planning and implementation of this project in a scholarly reflective journal.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Term Specific Information

Assessment Tasks

1 Project portfolio and presentation

Assessment Type

Project (applied)

Task Description

You will be required to present your project portfolio as a live presentation to your cohort of students. This presentation should be 10 - 15 minutes in length. The 2000 word document that you have created will form the basis of your presentation. You may use power point, multi-media platforms, photographic images as well as audio recordings. All of these you will have gathered over your project's 12 week tenure. You will be required to keep documentary evidence of your project from the beginning to the completion. This could involve photographs, videos, audio clips as well as a diary of events, meetings and or performance outcomes. You need to keep recording this as you go, so keeping an accurate diary of your schedule is paramount. This will form the basis of your project portfolio/presentation. The more evidence you can provide will support the learning you have gained from the experience. The project portfolio should be no longer than 2000 words, and should include at least 6 weeks of diary events.

2 Reflective essay/journal of project 2.

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

You will be required to write about your artistic practice in the form of a 1500-2000 word reflective essay. Your reflection should include how you chose your project, what were your motivating factors. Did your vision meet with the reality of the project? What logistical problems if any did you encounter? What worked and what didn't work, and how you might approach things differently in the future. These questions will form the basis for your reflections.

The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

Use 12 point Times New Roman font for the body of the essay.

1.5 spacing throughout

You may use sub-headings if you wish to organise your assignment. These may be in a different colour or different size font.

Include in-text references (citations) throughout the assignment.

Include a Reference List at the end of the assignment in APA style, 6th edition.

Do NOT cite from Wikipedia or other websites that do not have an acknowledged author

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
