Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Assessment Tasks

1 Reflective Practice Assignment

Assessment Type

Reflective Practice Assignment

Task Description

This written, reflective practice assessment will be completed in two parts (1200-1400 words in total).

Part A: Critically reflect and then discuss in 600 - 700 words, how various modes of drawing may benefit your contemporary visual art practice. Modes of drawing may include:

- a) Preparatory drawings and thumbnails sketches, that may not be seen by others, but support your ability to resolve artworks in another medium.
- b) Observational drawings completed for the purpose of improving drawing efficacy and/or efficiency.

c) Creative drawings completed for the purpose of exhibition and/or sale.

d) Experimental drawings completed to explore the limits of common drawing practices.

To complete Part A of this assessment, you must include citations in your written discussion, and include a Part A reference list which is inclusive of at least 5 scholarly or reliably authoritative sources.

Part B: Critically reflect on your drawing practices this term. This critical reflection will focus on:

a). your drawing outcomes

b). the processes you have used

c). the media that you have used.

You will then describe in 600 – 700 words:

a) how your approaches to observational drawing may be adapted to better meet the demands of your own creative practice.

b) how processes used to complete either Drawing Project #1 or Drawing Project #2, may be adapted to better meet the demands of your own creative practice.

Please note: To complete Part B of this assessment, you must include citations in your written description, and include a Part B reference list which is inclusive of at least 5 scholarly or reliably authoritative sources.

This assessment addresses learning outcomes 1 & 2 of this unit:

1. Discuss various modes of drawing and how they may be beneficial to contemporary visual artists.

2. Analyse how your approaches to drawing may be adapted to better meet the demands of your own creative practice.

Assignment format:

- Use 12-point Times New Roman font for the body of the essay.
- 1.5 spacing throughout
- You may use sub-headings if you wish to organise your assignment. These may be in a different colour or different size font.
- Include in-text references (citations) throughout the assignment.
- Include your name and student number in the header of the document
- Include page numbers in the footer of the document
- Include a Reference List at the end of the assignment in APA style, 7th edition.
- You should have a minimum of 10 references for this assignment.
- Do NOT cite from Wikipedia or other websites that do not have an acknowledged author.

Important information about word count:

The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

2 Portfolio of Drawings

Assessment Type

Portfolio

Task Description

This assessment task (portfolio of drawings) requires the submission of:

2.0). At least 1 observational drawing that relates to each of the 10 observational drawing tasks which span weeks 1-5 of this unit. Each observational drawing will be completed on A2 cartridge paper. Each observational must be drawn from life or be completed with the aid of a figure drawing app.

2.1). Your complete series of drawings which respond to drawing project task #1.

2.2). Your completed drawing or drawings which respond to drawing project task #2.

2.0 The observational drawing tasks (drawing exercises) are:

A. At least 1 (one) observational drawing (drawn from life, without the aid of photographs) of a table in perspective (week 1, draw task 1). (If the table has a rectangular tabletop, its longest dimension should be receding away from you in space when you draw it). Media and support: Charcoal (willow, hard compressed, charcoal pencil) on cartridge paper. To complete this task, you will use the measuring and sizing process demonstrated in this week's workshop and this week's Moodle resources.

B. At least 1 (one) observational drawing (drawn from life, without the aid of photographs) negative space drawing of a chair or small group of chairs (week 1, draw task 2). Media and support: Charcoal (willow, hard compressed, charcoal pencil) on cartridge paper. To complete this task, you will use the measuring and sizing process demonstrated in this week's workshop and this week's Moodle resources.

C. At least 1 (one) linear, observational drawing (without the aid of photographs) that uses constructive and analytical drawing techniques, and which uses lines and ellipses to describe a simple still-life. The still-life arrangement must include one teapot, at least one teacup, and one apple (or similar spherical fruit) (week 2, draw task 1). The drawing must incorporate a slightly elevated perspective, relative to the still-life objects. Media and support: Charcoal (willow, hard compressed, charcoal pencil) on cartridge paper.

D. At least 1 (one) tonal, observational drawing (drawn from life, without the aid of photographs) that uses constructive and analytical drawing techniques, and which uses carefully observed and rendered tones to describe a simple still-life. The still-life arrangement must include one teapot, at least one teacup, and one apple (or similar spherical fruit) and find a suitable solution to the depiction of the space around these subjects. The drawing must incorporate a slightly elevated perspective, relative to the still-life objects (week 2, draw task 2). Media and support: Charcoal (willow, hard compressed, charcoal pencil) on cartridge paper. (This second still-life drawing may be the second stage of the linear, observational drawing of the still-life arrangement, using photographs to document the two stages of the drawing's development.)

E. At least 1 (one) observational drawing (drawn from life or with the aid of a life-drawing app.) of an unclothed or clothed, standing human form in contrapposto pose, and which demonstrates the use of construction lines to describe the basic skeletal structure of the standing form (week 3, draw task 1). Media and support: Charcoal (willow, hard compressed, charcoal pencil) on cartridge paper.

F. At least 1 (one) observational drawing (drawn from life or with the aid of a life-drawing app.) of an unclothed or clothed, standing human form in contrapposto pose, and which demonstrates the use of construction lines to describe the form's basic skeletal structure, and which incorporates broken contour as well as gestural lines which describe the edge of the form and imply dynamism in the form's structure (week 3, draw task 3). Media and support: Charcoal (willow, hard compressed, charcoal pencil) on cartridge paper.

G. At least 1 (one) observational drawing (drawn from life or with the aid of a life-drawing app.) of an unclothed or clothed, standing human form in contrapposto pose, sketched using basic constructive forms that highlight dynamic movement and relationships between the spine, head, pelvis, and ribcage (the shoulders, humerus, elbows, radius and ulna, femur, patella, fibula, and tibia may be described with the use of straight lines and small circles (week 4, draw task 1). Media and support: Charcoal (willow, hard compressed, charcoal pencil) on cartridge paper.

H. At least 1 (one) observational drawing (drawn from life or with the aid of a life-drawing app.) of an unclothed or clothed, standing human form in contrapposto pose and which incorporates lines and tones, positive and negative space, and is suggestive of the force of gravity and its impact on the musculature of the human body (week 4, draw task 2). Media and support: Charcoal (willow, hard compressed, charcoal pencil) on cartridge paper.

I. At least 1 (one) linear drawing that depicts the generic proportions of an adult human head (front view). At least 1 linear drawing that depicts the generic proportions of an adult human head (side view/profile) (week 5, draw task 1). Media and support: Any drawing media or support. (Or simple generic head)

J. At least 1 (one) interpretive or expressive self-portrait. The process used to create this drawing may include the use of technologies including photography, photocopiers, projection, digital manipulation software (like Adobe Photoshop) and generative AI (artificial intelligence) or simply a mirror (week 5, draw task 2). Media and support: Any drawing media or support (however consideration should be given to the media and support's archival properties and general quality).

2.1 Drawing Project #1 (creative drawing series – drawn artefacts as exhibitable artworks)

Complete a series of at least 3 (three) drawings that are no smaller than 45 cm in any direction, and which respond creatively to an idea, concept, theory, or precept that is also central to your emerging visual arts practice. A such these drawings should be understood to represent your current practice, seek to be professional in approach and execution, and form a visual relationship with creative work completed in either CART12010 or CART13011. You may choose any media and support to complete this series of drawings, but consideration should be given to archival stability (permanence) and your reputation as an emerging professional. The same general approach, media, support, and image dimensions should be used to complete each drawing in the series.

2.2 Drawing Project #2 (experimental drawing – “This is a drawing”, “Is this a drawing?”)

For this drawing project you will complete an experimental drawing or drawings. To successfully complete this project brief you will develop and submit a graphic artefact that is engaging, and which seeks to extend the parameters commonly associated with the term ‘drawing’. You may do this by deploying a non-typical drawing process, by using non-typical drawing media, or by using non-typical drawing supports. (If temporary materials are used, it will be necessary to record the drawing using photographs.) The drawing process and outcome must show due respect for other people's property, not be considered obscene, and not pose any health risk to yourself or others.

Please note: Before you submit your folio assessment, you must first complete the declaration acknowledging that you are the sole author of the drawings submitted for this assessment, and that the processes used to complete them strictly comply with the prescribed drawing tasks descriptions. Authorship also acknowledges that the submitted drawings have not been aided in part or in full by generative AI (artificial intelligence) technologies (with the exception of observational drawing task j).

Please note: To submit your portfolio of drawings, you must use the Portfolio of Drawings template provided and submit it via Moodle by the due date.

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
