General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will extend your competence in drawing so that it may form a key activity in your creative practice. You will use drawing as an expressive mode of communication and develop a portfolio of drawings using a variety of media and approaches. You will also learn how to adapt drawing processes so that they may meet your own creative needs.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Discuss various modes of drawing and how they may be beneficial to contemporary visual artists
2. Analyse how your approaches to drawing may be adapted to better meet the demands of your own creative practice
3. Integrate formal drawing elements and concepts including line, tone, shape, texture, pattern, proportion, space, perspective and emphasis to produce drawn documents with descriptive and suggestive power
4. Create a folio of drawings which apply concepts relevant to observational, interpretative and experimental drawings.

No external accreditation is required for this unit.
