General Information

Overview

This unit will introduce key concepts in small business management as well as techniques for being successful in a clinical business environment. It will further enhance your ability to communicate in a professional manner. Areas of specialisation will be introduced allowing you to investigate the different types of chiropractic practices that exist. You will have the opportunity to participate in active and applied learning through a variety of mixed learning modes. This unit is aimed at producing work ready graduates that understand the role of business in clinical practice while providing you with a competitive edge for securing employment in Australia.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback and teaching reflection

Feedback

Students indicated that earlier release of assessment rubrics and clearer expectations at the start of the term would further support their learning experience.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the unit coordinator ensures timely release of all assessment material.

Feedback from Student feedback and teaching reflection

Feedback

Students valued the applied, real-world teaching and lived business experience

Recommendation

It is recommended that the unit coordinator continues integrating real-world examples and lived business experience into teaching.

Feedback from Student feedback and teaching reflection

Feedback

Students noted that core lecture content was outdated and not sufficiently aligned with current Australian employment laws.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the unit coordinator updates the core lecture content regularly to ensure it reflects current Australian employment laws and contemporary workplace practices.
