General Information

Overview

In this unit you will examine the numerous social complexities that exist in the delivery of healthcare and how those complexities impact practice. You will examine different perspectives on health and their influence on decision making, and then discuss ways to balance personal views with available scientific evidence and rationale. You will also study factors that affect the health outcomes of the individual as they apply to your obligation to deliver evidence-based, patient-centred health care.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE

Feedback

Some student felt that assessment 1 and 2 were somewhat similar tasks.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the assessment tasks be reviewed so that the written and presentation assessment are distinctly different assessments.

Feedback from SUTE

Feedback

Some students would have appreciated additional clarification of the assessment requirements.

Recommendation

It is recommended that assessment guidelines and marking rubrics are provided to students in Moodle, with additional tutorial time dedicated to discussing the requirements and to provide additional clarification.
