Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

3. Presentation and Written Assessment

Weighting: 50%

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

- Grades and Results Policy
- Assessment Policy and Procedure (Higher Education Coursework)
- Review of Grade Procedure
- Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure
- Monitoring Academic Progress (MAP) Policy and Procedure – Domestic Students
- Monitoring Academic Progress (MAP) Policy and Procedure – International Students
- Student Refund and Credit Balance Policy and Procedure
- Student Feedback – Compliments and Complaints Policy and Procedure
- Information and Communications Technology Acceptable Use Policy and Procedure

This list is not an exhaustive list of all University policies. The full list of University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback

The students found that the unit was well organised and helped them understand the ICT business world. Distance students appreciated the online sessions and news forum updates. Students indicated they liked learning how to communicate in different ways, especially non-verbal. Students noted the presentations helped them increase their confidence.

Recommendation

Keep the related activities and materials.

Feedback

The assessment requirements need to be clearer.

Recommendation

Simplify the assessment.

Feedback

The lecture slides need some more explanations.

Recommendation

Add additional explanations to the lecture slides.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Explain communication concepts and strategies.
2. Show confidence and skills in oral communications and presentations.
3. Work effectively as part of a team.
4. Communicate effectively in a professional context.
5. Define and demonstrate conflict management and resolution strategies.

Australian Computer Society (ACS) recognises the Skills Framework for the Information Age (SFIA). SFIA is in use in over 100 countries and provides a widely used and consistent definition of ICT skills. SFIA is increasingly being used when developing job descriptions and role profiles.

ACS members can use the tool MySFIA to build a skills profile at

<https://www.acs.org.au/professionalrecognition/mysfia-b2c.html>

This unit contributes to the following workplace skills as defined by SFIA. The SFIA codes and core skills included are:

- Core skill, Business Skills: Communication skills and teamwork
- Relationship management (RLMT)
- Information Management (IRMG)
- Research (RSCH)

Assessment Tasks

1 Ass 1 Role Play

Assessment Type

Practical and Written Assessment

Task Description

We would like you to work in pairs to role play a scenario to demonstrate your conflict management strategies. Your role play should last between 3 to 5 minutes. You will need to develop a script. Distance students will require a web cam, microphone and speaker or headset.

Pairs

You may choose your partner. Please discuss with your lecturer if you have not found a partner by the start of Week 2. You must work in pairs unless granted an exception by the unit coordinator. Exceptions are only granted in extenuating circumstances and will generally require written documentation.

Choice of Scenarios

Several scenarios will be provided to you. You can choose one of the provided scenarios, or, with the written permission of your lecturer, you may develop your own conflict management scenario, e.g., a scenario based on your work or personal life.

Videorecord or Present Live

You may videorecord your role play. Alternatively, you (distance and oncampus students) also have the option to present during your class in Week 3.

Further Details

Further details for this assignment, including the scenarios, will be available on the Moodle unit website.

Assessment Due Date

Week 3 Friday (23 Mar 2018) 11:45 pm AEST

Live role plays will be assessed during your Week 3 class. Any extension provided to one partner will also apply to the other partner.

Return Date to Students

A moderation process is performed to ensure marker consistency. Feedback will be returned within a fortnight of submission when the moderation process is complete. Any feedback you receive prior to the moderation process might change.

Weighting

30%

Assessment Criteria

Pairs will usually receive the same mark.

The assignment criteria include aspects such as stage presence, nonverbal gestures, listening skills (e.g., use of paraphrasing), conflict management skills (e.g., use of "I" phrases), and the mechanics of your script, e.g., the spelling and grammar.

Plagiarism and the use of a rewriting engine such as a synonym generator or a spinner will be dealt with according to University policy. Plagiarism penalties and academic misconduct charges will apply to both partners in the pair. Your assignment might be assigned a zero grade or reported for further action.

Incomplete submissions such as those in which staff are unable to access linked material, e.g., due to insufficient permissions, might not be marked or late penalties might be applied.

Referencing Style

Submission

Online

Submission Instructions

You (both partners) need to submit a script of your role play in a Word document via the unit website. Include the names and student numbers of both partners. If you choose to videorecord your role play, please also submit the file or include a link to your hosted recording.

Learning Outcomes Assessed

- Show confidence and skills in oral communications and presentations.
- Work effectively as part of a team.
- Communicate effectively in a professional context.
- Define and demonstrate conflict management and resolution strategies.

Graduate Attributes

- Communication
- Problem Solving
- Critical Thinking
- Information Literacy
- Team Work
- Information Technology Competence
- Cross Cultural Competence
- Ethical practice

2 Ass 2 ICT Messages

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

In this assignment, we would like you to complete the following tasks:

- Design a message (30%) and decompose arguments from an ICT industry document (30%) to demonstrate that you can explain communication concepts and strategies.
- Apply a writing style guide to a 500 word writing task (40%) to assess your ability to communicate effectively in a professional context.

This is an individual assignment.

Further details will be provided on the Moodle unit website.

Assessment Due Date

Week 5 Friday (6 Apr 2018) 11:45 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

A moderation process is used to ensure marker consistency. Feedback and marks will be returned within a fortnight of submission when the marking and moderation process is completed.

Weighting

Assessment Criteria

The assignment criteria includes aspects such as the communication strategy design, adherence to a style guide, writing style, correct classification of arguments, analysis of the validity of arguments, and your writing mechanics, e.g., spelling and grammar.

Your assignment will be checked for plagiarism and the use of rewriting engines, also known as synonym generators or spinners. Your assignment might be assigned a zero grade or reported for further action.

Incomplete submissions such as those in which staff are unable to access linked material, e.g., due to insufficient permissions, might not be marked or late penalties might be applied.

3 Ass 3 Report and Presentation

Assessment Type

Presentation and Written Assessment

Task Description

There are two components to this assignment:

- Report (50%)
- Presentation (50%)

Please write a report for an organisation that wishes to enhance its communications. Support your report with a presentation.

Choice of Case Study

A case study will be provided to you. With the written permission of the unit coordinator, you may develop your own case study, e.g., one related to your work.

Report

Please write a report to detail your findings. The report will be 1500 to 2000 words in length. In the report you will need to discuss aspects such as the organisation's communication context including any ethical and intercultural communication implications. You will need to include recommendations as to how the organisation should proceed. Your recommendations will need to be structured arguments that use Toulmin's model. While your report may draw on the material covered in this unit, you are expected to find and use references beyond those provided by this unit.

Presentation

We would like you to present your findings to the client. Create a PowerPoint, to support your presentation. Your PowerPoint will not be directly assessed.

You (distance and oncampus students) will present during your Week 10 class. Distance students will require a web cam, microphone and speaker (or headset).

Groups

You may work alone or in groups of up to four people. The unit coordinator must be informed prior to submission if a group decides to split.

Assessment Due Date

Week 9 Monday (7 May 2018) 11:45 pm AEST

The report is due by the assignment deadline. The presentation is due during your (distance and oncampus) Week 10 class. Any extension provided to one group member will also apply to the other group members for the report component. Any extension provided to one group member will not apply to the other group members for the presentation component.

Return Date to Students

Feedback and marks for this assignment will not be available until after the grade certification date.

Weighting

50%

Assessment Criteria

The assignment criteria for the report include aspects such as the quality of the Toulmin arguments and references, the report organisation and framing, the writing style, the quality of the analysis of the ethical and intercultural communications context, the quality of the referencing, grammar, and spelling.

The assignment criteria for the presentation include aspects such as your stage presence and gestures.

All members of the group are required to speak for at least four minutes each.

Usually, all group members will receive the same mark for the report. Your presentation skills will be marked individually.

All group members are required to speak in the Week 10 class unless the unit coordinator has granted an exception. If a student does not attend on the day of the presentation, the remaining group members must be ready to present. The absent student will be allocated zero marks.

Plagiarism and the use of a rewriting engine such as a synonym generator or a spinner will be dealt with according to University policy. Plagiarism penalties and academic misconduct charges may apply to all group members for group components. Your assignment might be assigned a zero grade or reported for further action.

Incomplete submissions such as those in which staff are unable to access linked material, e.g., due to insufficient permissions, might not be marked or late penalties might be applied.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
