General Information

Overview

In an increasingly complex and volatile business environment, efficient business processes are core to an organisation and its business partners in order to accomplish organisational goals. Managing business processes is vital to the designing and managing of organisations. This unit introduces you to the concepts of Business Process Management (BPM) and workflow within organisations. During the term, you are required to apply tools and techniques to assess and recommend organisational processes. In addition, you will evaluate current business processes and propose improvements that align with organisational strategy. This unit provides you with the skills required to develop a report that: defines and models streamlined business processes; recommends improvements and sustainable practices; and identifies potential organisational change issues. Note: If you have completed the unit COIT20235 (Business Process Modelling) then you cannot take this unit.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student (Moodle Evaluation)

Feedback

Students have expressed an overall high satisfaction with the course content and structure.

Recommendation

No specific requests for change.

Action

No action was needed.

Feedback from Student (Moodle Evaluation) and Staff email

Feedback

Incorporate presentations in the course based on BPM case studies/projects.

Recommendation

This will be researched and incorporated based on a feasibility analysis of best practices.

Action

This is being investigated and will be incorporated by T1, 2018.

Feedback from Students (Moodle Evaluation)

Feedback

Reduction in the number of blog posts and portfolios

Recommendation

The blog posts and portfolios have already been reduced from a previous total of 10 to 7 (4 ePortfolios and 3 blog posts).

Action

No action was needed.

Feedback from Student (Moodle Evaluation) and Emails

Feedback

Some students have cited the inability to participate in group assessments (Assessment 3).

Recommendation

Australian Computer Society encourages the development of soft skills that enable students to work as part of teams. However, if a student is unable to participate in a group, the Assessment provides consideration for this and arrangement/s should be discussed with the lecturer by the end of week 3.

Action

A provision for this is incorporated in the assessment. Students can complete the assessment as a group with two to four members. If required because of personal circumstances, it may be possible to do the assessment alone. In order to do the assessment alone, students need to seek the approval of the campus lecturer and/or unit coordinator.

Assessment Tasks

1 Blogs (Online Journal)

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

A blog is a website where entries are made in reverse chronological order. It is perhaps the simplest and one of the most popular ways of producing a website. A blog is similar to an online diary/journal.

In this unit we use Mahara for creating the blogs. Please refer to the Moodle unit website for instructions on how to create a blog/journal and submit your blog posts/entries.

You are required to maintain an online reflective blog/journal and write blog posts/entries for the weekly topics 4, 6 and 8. For each blog post, you will select one of the listed articles from the Additional Readings section of the relevant week on the unit's Moodle site. After reading the article, you will write a reflective blog post describing how this article has helped you to learn the week's topic. Please refer to the unit Moodle site for detailed description of the task.

Assessment Due Date

1pm Friday of the relevant week

Return Date to Students

Within two weeks of submission.

Weighting

15%

Assessment Criteria

You can complete your blog posts before the due dates but feedback will not be released until 2 weeks after the due date of each blog post. Due date is 1pm Friday of the relevant week. Marks and feedback on your work will be returned to you via Moodle.

The blog posts will be assessed on your demonstration of insight and ability to compare and contrast ideas being presented. You will need to show an understanding of the paper and reflect upon the learning value. Your post should be correctly referenced and free from typographical, spelling and grammatical errors. Please refer to the Moodle unit website for specific marking criteria for this assessment.

If your work is found to be copied from another source, plagiarism penalties will be applied as per University policy. Therefore, it is in your best interests to do your own work.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
