General Information

Overview

Social change is defined by the significant alteration of social structure and cultural patterns. This unit will examine the political influence and communication techniques used to effect meaningful social change, including the rise of social media. You will identify and explain key elements of the democratic process in Australia including relationships between the three levels of government and will critique an example of an effective social change campaign. From this in-depth analysis you will further extend and develop key socially innovative communication techniques applicable to future social change events.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student evaluation

Feedback

A small number of students suggested the final assignment, the presentation, could be better explained.

Recommendation

It is recommended that all assessment items be reviewed for understanding, relevance and clarity.

Feedback from Professional Communication Planning Day Dec 2017

Feedback

The unit's content is considered dated and losing relevance in a rapidly changing global political landscape.

Recommendation

It is recommended the unit undergoes a complete review - due to dramatic shifts in the Australian and international political landscapes - to ensure the unit remains relevant.

Feedback from Student evaluation and Professional Communication Planning Day 2017

Feedback

Some students considered the unit title to be a misnomer and felt the content could be more accurately described in the unit name.

Recommendation

It is recommended the unit undergoes a complete review, including the unit title, to better reflect the content and tone of the unit.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Define social change in the context of the Australian democratic political system.
2. Examine a social change event to identify socially innovative communication techniques.
3. Compare and contrast the role of traditional and social media in the context of social change.
4. Analyse and evaluate a real-world social change campaign in a political context.

Week 2 - 16 Jul 2018

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Democracy and the Australian Political System To affect meaningful social change, it is imperative that you have a thorough understanding of democracy and the Australian political system. Module Two will break down the fundamentals of Australian politics and explain the roles of elected representatives across Local, State and Federal Governments.	Louw, Chapter 3

Week 3 - 23 Jul 2018

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Three levels of Government: How They Work Together There's an old saying in Australian politics: you can't have one, without the other... and it's in Module Three that you will explore the fundamental relationships between the three levels of government. This will include analysis of social change campaigns between governments, notably the forced amalgamation of local governments in Queensland.	Louw, Chapter 4

Week 4 - 30 Jul 2018

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
People Power: Affecting Social Change in a Democratic Society In this Module you will explore how 'people power' - that is, strong demonstrations of public opinion - can affect cultural shifts and social change by lobbying the appropriate levels of government. The de-amalgamation of four Queensland Councils will be examined as an example.	Details in the Study Guide Lesson - located on the unit website.

Week 5 - 06 Aug 2018

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
--------------	---------	------------------------------

Spreading the Word: Successful Communication Techniques

Module Five provides an introduction to traditional and digital communication techniques used in social change campaigns, including the role of the media and rise of social media. You will also look at the role of professional lobbyists and public relations practitioners in a political context.

Week 7 - 27 Aug 2018

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Social Media: The Voice of the People Module Seven outlines the unprecedented impact of social media in raising public profile and garnering mass support for issues of contention, thus influencing political decisions and social change. You will explore the role of social media through the case study from Module Six, including the rise of hashtags.	Details in the Study Guide Lesson - located on the unit website.

Week 8 - 03 Sep 2018

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
--------------	---------	------------------------------

The Role of Traditional Media

The nature of modern media enables journalists to communicate with mass audiences. This module will examine how social change issues are portrayed in the media and how such coverage can ultimately influence potential outcomes. You will discuss whether objectivity is still a core value of modern journalists, particularly concerning government issues.

Details in the Study Guide Lesson - located on the unit website.

Week 9 - 10 Sep 2018

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Lobbying and the Art of Political Spin Just as magicians use smoke and mirrors to create illusions, so too does the political machine to divert attention from an unsuspecting audience. Module Nine provides an in-depth look at the art of public relations and selling the political message, as well as the external lobbyists whose job it is to win favour and influence political decisions.		Details in the Study Guide Lesson - located on the unit website.

Week 10 - 17 Sep 2018

Module/Topic	Chapter	Events and Submissions/Topic
Political Practice and Application of the Message This Module breaks down the political process and explores the progress of a social change campaign from concept to reality. You will gain an understanding of primary government papers (Green and White) including those written to generate discussion, and those outlining legislation and policy, in-line with your second assessment.		Details in the Study Guide Lesson - located on the unit website.

Assessment Tasks

1 Local Government Meeting Attendance and Process

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Part A

Identify your local government area and organise to attend an Ordinary Council Meeting between weeks two (2) and six (6) of term. Prior to attending the meeting, research the meeting agenda and identify two potential social change issues that may require a decision to be made by Council.

During the meeting, pay particular attention to the discussion of these issues, including the background, the voting process and the outcome/s.

Attach the appropriate section of the agenda as an appendix to this assignment as evidence of attendance and research.

Part B

In 1,500 words, analyse the aspects of social change evident in the two issues identified at the meeting.

Link your analysis and findings to relevant unit content, including academic references, to justify and support your arguments.

The point of this analysis is to articulate social change, and identify socially innovative communication techniques in action on a local government level.

Your analysis should be structured around the following sub-headings:

- Introduction - identify the Council area and introduce social change in the context of local government.
- Issue One - provide a brief summary of the first issue including voting process and outcome from the meeting.
- Issue Two - provide a brief summary of the second issue including voting process and outcome from the meeting
- Discussion - Linking with key concepts from the unit, explain how social change was affected through the democratic process, including the role of the media, political and non-political influence.
- Conclusion - justification of your argument

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Friday (24 Aug 2018) 5:00 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

Week 8 Friday (7 Sept 2018)

The unit coordinator will endeavour to return assessments within two weeks of their due date.

2 Lobbying for Social Change

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

You are a lobbyist advocating on behalf of an innovative Australian social change campaign. Prepare a submission to the relevant level of government in the form of a White Paper or Green Paper to articulate your position and influence social change in a democratic political environment. You may choose an issue or social change campaign identified at your local Council meeting (from Assessment One). Alternatively, you can select a social change campaign of your choosing, with prior approval from the Unit Coordinator, or choose from the options below:

- Plastic Bag Free Queensland - The campaign to ban the use of single use plastic bags in Queensland.
- Changing the date of Australia Day - the push to move Australia Day celebrations to a more culturally sensitive and inclusive date.

Consider the historical context of the issue in Australian culture and explain why there is now an appetite for change, including political and non-political influence. Research which level of government is responsible for legislating change in the context of your chosen social change campaign. Identify and evaluate socially innovative communication techniques used in the social change campaign, paying particular attention to the role of traditional and non-traditional media. Present your argument as a 2,500-word White paper or Green paper, linking with key concepts from the unit to explain if / how social change was affected through the democratic process. Justify what improvements could be made to the campaign and why. Your assessment will include relevant academic references to support your arguments. Each submission should include a preface, explaining the context of the campaign in terms of what you are lobbying, why, to whom and whether your submission is a Green Paper or a White Paper.

The preface is not included in the final word count.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
