The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit gives you an opportunity to undertake a project of your choice in the Journalism discipline in which you have already done a substantial amount of study. The project is flexible and is designed by students in consultation with academic and workplace supervisors. It may involve academic research into Journalism practice or a professional work placement with an approved organisation (minimum 120 hours). Academic and workplace supervisors will work with students to devise assessment tasks that will meet negotiated and specific project learning outcomes.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Have Your Say student evaluation

The choice of either a Research Project or a work placement was appreciated - especially the option of the research project for those students who did not want to do a work placement, or who were unable to secure a work placement because of COVID lockdown.

Recommendation

It is recommended to continue offering a choice in the assessment (work placement or research project), to best meet the needs of a variety of student cohorts.

Feedback

Research project needed more guidance.

Recommendation

It is recommended to include additional material about expected structure and format of the research project, beyond the use of exemplars, to ensure that students can make an informed decision about which assessment to choose, and to ensure there is sufficient academic guidance as students complete the research element.
