General Information

Overview

This unit introduces you to the basic elements of criminology and criminal justice. The nature and trends associated with crime are examined, together with how it relates to dimensions such as social class, age, gender and ethnicity. You will examine crime in the context of contemporary criminology theory. This unit also introduces you to the institutional response to Criminal Justice in Australia, how society responds to offensive behaviour and the roles of key agencies and individuals within the justice system.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback Educator observation

Feedback

Students benefited from the Academic Learning Centre (ALC) sessions that were embedded into the workshops

Recommendation

Continue to collaborate with the ALC to guide student learning and provide opportunities for ALC staff to present at workshops in advance of the assessment due dates to prepare students for assessments.

Feedback from Student feedback

Vary assessment due dates so they are not clustered around week 4, 10 and 12 when other unit assessments are due.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the teaching team review the assessment due dates for all assessment items to ensure that the current dates support student success.

Feedback from SUTE data

Some students did not feel that feedback was useful

Recommendation

Review the methods used to provide feedback to students, exploring different avenue for communication of feedback (e.g. voice recorded feedback in Turn It In feedback suite).
