CRIM11002 Criminal Justice Procedure and Analysis
Term 1 - 2026

Profile information current as at 05/12/2025 03:31 pm

General Information

Overview

This unit introduces you to the investigation of crime within the framework of Australian law. The social role of policing and the structure of police services are examined in depth, particularly in the context of ethics and oversight mechanisms. The historical transformations of police services are explored in order to understand the evolving nature of policing as social demands and relevant technologies also change. The scope of the power of investigation, the discretion whether or not to prosecute and the criminal adjudicatory process are considered. This unit also introduces the tools used to analyse crime and how such analysis informs decisions and interventions in the criminal justice system.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE

Feedback

Students indicated assessment feedback was not useful.

Recommendation

The Unit Coordinator will review assessment instructions to improve students' understanding of what is required. A review of the marking guidance will be carried out to improve the usefulness of assessment feedback.

Feedback from SUTE

Feedback

Students noted assessment expectations could be clearer.

Recommendation

The unit will review assessments to ensure clearer instructions are provided to help students know what is expected. The Unit Coordinator will run dedicated assessment sessions to explain assessment expectations.

Feedback from SUTE

Feedback

Students appreciated the study guides and additional resources.

Recommendation

The study guides will continue to improve and be engaging, and efforts will be made to enhance and maintain additional resources.

Feedback from SUTE

Feedback

Students appreciated the teaching style and subject passion of the Unit Coordinator.

Recommendation

The Unit Coordinator will continue to provide an engaging learning space and deep connections between the teacher, learner, and topics.
