General Information

Overview

This unit explores the theory and practice of contemporary photography, examining its role in news, art and visual culture. Through a combination of historical context and modern perspectives, you will gain insight into the evolving language of photography and its impact on society. This unit also covers key practical skills such as composition, lighting and colour management. As part of the assessment, you will be required to produce a photographic portfolio. To complete this unit, you must have access to either a mirrorless digital camera, a digital single-lens reflex (DSLR) camera, or a high-end camera phone, as well as image-editing software capable of processing digital photographs.
