

DGTL12013 Writing for the Screen

Term 1 - 2023

Profile information current as at 04/05/2024 04:50 am

All details in this unit profile for DGTL12013 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit of study builds on the foundation provided by MMST11009 Digital Video and Audio to teach visual storytelling concepts. You will learn how to create a screenplay for a live-action narrative short film through the application of visual storytelling principles. You will develop industry standard documents and visual aids related to the pre-production of a narrative short film. You will learn how to constructively critique screen stories through an exploration of screen culture and history.

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

This list is not an exhaustive list of all University policies. The full list of University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE feedback

Feedback

The writing tasks in Assessment Item 1 followed on from group work in class. Some students found these requirements unclear.

Recommendation

Requirements for writing tasks will be fully elaborated in the Assessment Description.

Feedback from SUTE feedback

Feedback

The second and third assessment items had no clear due dates, as they were framed around completing in-class table reads week-by-week. Some students were not comfortable with this.

Recommendation

First and final drafts will be due at set dates. Table reads and redrafting will occur between these dates. Reflection on the table read process will now be part of Assessment Item 3.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Create a screenplay for a live-action narrative short film through the application of visual storytelling principles
2. Create industry-standard pre-production documents and visual aids
3. Constructively critique a range of screen stories within the context of screen culture and history.

2 First Draft and Screenwriting Workbook Part 2

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

This assessment item comprises:

- The first draft of a screenplay for a short live action film that would run for three to seven minutes if produced (15 marks)
- Three exercises that form the second part of your Screenwriting Workbook. (15 marks)

Screenwriting Workbook Exercise Topics:

- Week 7: Writing Exercise: Write two versions of a provided scenario - one using action with intercuts, the other using montage. (5 marks - 2 to 3 pages)
- Week 8: Writing Exercise: Give brief notes on a provided draft screenplay (5 marks - one to two pages)
- Week 9: Moodboard Exercise: Provide six images that would help a reader understand the look, feel, mood and genre of your screenplay as you envisage it. (5 marks - 6 images with captions and source references where relevant)

Full requirements for all elements of this assessment will be provided on the Moodle Site.

Important notes on the drafting process and table reads

It is important that you participate in the compulsory in-class table read sessions. Table reads begin in Week 7. You should present an initial, rough draft of your screenplay for a table read and incorporate feedback into the first draft, which you submit as part of this assessment item.

If there are equity or access grounds preventing your participation, contact your lecturer to arrange for an alternative method of receiving feedback on your draft.

3 Screenplay: Final Draft, Electronic Press Kit and Reflection

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

For this assessment item you are required to:

- Produce the final draft of a screenplay for a live action short film that would run for three to seven minutes if produced (25 marks)
- Produce an electronic press kit (EPK) that would market your screenplay as if it were a completed short film. (10 marks)
- Produce a written piece reflecting on the process that led to your final draft, with reference to your table read feedback. (5 marks, approx. 2 pages)

Full requirements for the final draft, electronic press kit and written reflection will be provided on the Course Moodle Site.

Important notes on the drafting process and table reads

It is important that you participate in the compulsory in-class table read sessions. You should present the first draft from Assessment Item Two for a table read and incorporate your feedback into your final draft. You will not be eligible for marks for the written reflection if you have not participated in the table read.

If there are equity or access grounds preventing your participation, contact your lecturer to arrange for an alternative method of receiving feedback on your draft.

Assessment Criteria

Draft Screenplay:

- 21-25 marks: Your screenplay represents a very high standard of writing. You use plot, characterisation and narrative structure very effectively and it is evident that you are skilfully applying key course concepts in the development of your screenplay. Your use of standard screenplay formatting is exemplary. You have effectively incorporated feedback from the table reads.
- 19-20.5 marks: Your screenplay represents a high standard of writing. You use plot, characterisation and narrative structure effectively and it is evident that you are applying key course concepts in the development of your screenplay. Your use of standard screenplay formatting is of a good standard.
- 16.5-18 marks: Your screenplay represents a reasonable standard of writing. There are no significant flaws in your use of plot, characterisation, narrative or formatting
- 12.5-16 marks: You have written a coherent screenplay but there is a clear need for improvement in terms of plot, characterisation, narrative or formatting
- 0-12 marks: You have not produced a coherent screenplay and/or there are serious deficiencies in terms of plot, characterisation, narrative structure and written expression.

Electronic Press Kit

- 8.5 -10 The EPK is impactful and conveys the nature of the production effectively. Written expression is exemplary. There is a focus on the screenwriter as someone with an interesting story to tell, and a clear sense of an audience for the production.
- 7.5-8 The EPK is impactful and conveys the nature of the production. Written expression is very good. The EPK presents the screenwriter effectively and appeals to a specific audience.
- 6.5-7 The EPK conveys the mood and genre of the production and has relevant things to say about the screenwriter.
- 5-6 The EPK conveys the mood and genre of the production in a general manner.
- 0-4.5 The images do not give a clear impression of the production and/or do not clearly relate to your draft screenplay.

Written Reflection

NB: To gain marks for this component you must have participated in the table read process. If, on equity grounds, your Lecturer arranged an alternative process, you must have participated in that process.

- 5 marks: Your reflection demonstrates an exemplary level of written expression. You have made very effective use of feedback to improve your draft. You participated constructively in more than one table read. Your final draft is much improved on your first draft
- 4 marks: Your participation in the table read process was good. You have made use of the feedback that has been provided to you
- 3 marks: Your participation in the table read process was sound. You read effectively and asked at least one constructive question. Some development has occurred since your first draft as a result of feedback.
- 0-2 marks: Your attendance was limited and/or it is not clear that feedback has been incorporated or that significant redrafting has occurred.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
