General Information

Overview

This unit of study builds on the foundation provided by MMST11009 Digital Video and Audio to teach visual storytelling concepts. You will learn how to create a screenplay for a live-action narrative short film through the application of visual storytelling principles. You will develop industry standard documents and visual aids related to the pre-production of a narrative short film. You will learn how to constructively critique screen stories through an exploration of screen culture and history.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE report

Feedback

This year's smaller cohort showed a downward trend in satisfaction with the assessment and the knowledge and skills covered.

Recommendation

Develop more individually focused guided exercises so that learning is less reliant on the Zoom seminars.
