

DGTL12014 Documentary Filmmaking

Term 1 - 2023

Profile information current as at 25/04/2024 02:45 am

All details in this unit profile for DGTL12014 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will learn the history and theory of documentary, and about current trends in industry practice. Through a series of individual exercises, you will gain skills in project development, sound and vision capture, and documentary editing using industry-standard software. You will apply these skills in the production of your own short documentary. You will be encouraged to find your authentic voice and visual style, and will be introduced to the ethical and legal considerations for documentary practice.

Assessment Overview

1. Practical Assessment

Weighting: 40%

2. Practical Assessment

Weighting: 60%

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

This list is not an exhaustive list of all University policies. The full list of University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Self Reflection

Feedback

The first assessment was quite complex.

Recommendation

Streamline first and second assessments. Focus on preproduction exercises as the main assessment outcome for Assessment 1.

Feedback from Teaching Team feedback

Feedback

Make more use of the technical demonstrators on campuses

Recommendation

Allow sufficient time in the breakout groups for technical demonstrators to work with students.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Integrate a theoretical understanding of documentary practice and audiovisual skills in the creation of a completed documentary project.
2. Apply documentary editing principles in the creation of a documentary using industry-standard editing software.
3. Manage media files and workflow through the stages of development, pre-production, production, post-production and distribution
4. Reflect critically on one's own professional documentary practice within an industry-standard ethical framework.

Assessment Tasks

1 Creative Development Workbook

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

The Creative Development Workbook is a structured set of weekly exercises designed to support you in developing the skills required for the Short Documentary Project (Assignment 2). Weekly exercises include the following:

1. Critical thinking exercises: These exercises are designed to help you develop critical thinking skills to assist you in making informed decisions about the content and style of your documentary. Theoretical concepts that relate to documentary filmmaking are included in the unit content.
2. Technical production exercises: These exercises are designed to develop the technical skills required to create a documentary. They include conducting an interview, audio capture, camera and editing skills.
3. Project development exercises: These exercises are designed to help develop and test your ideas for your documentary. By the end of the development exercises, you will have completed a pitch document for your documentary.

The exercises are designed to be completed sequentially, starting from Week 1 and continuing through to Week 4. A Creative Workbook template is provided to complete and submit the exercises and can be found in the Assessment Tile on your unit website (Moodle). Details of the weekly exercises can be found in the Creative Development Workbook Template and in the Weekly Study Guides. You are also required to complete a self-evaluation as part of this assignment. Creativity and experimentation are encouraged.

The completed assignment should adhere to the submission requirements provided in the detailed assignment breakdown on the unit website (Moodle).

Assessment Due Date

Week 5 Thursday (6 Apr 2023) 11:59 pm AEST

Please submit your completed Creative Development Workbook via Moodle

2 Short Documentary Project

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

The Short Documentary Project requires you to complete a standalone short documentary of 3-5 minutes to a standard suitable for entry into a nominated film festival. The subject of your documentary can be of your own choosing and must include an interview with your participant, accompanying b-roll footage, and a verite scene of a social, physical, or cultural ritual. In addition to your documentary, you are required to submit specified documentation and a reflective statement on your documentary practice.

This assignment requires you to submit:

1. Completed short documentary
2. Pre-production, production, post-production and workflow documentation
3. Reflective statement and self-evaluation

Students are required to attend a rough-cut screening in Weeks 8 or 9 to receive and give feedback as per standard industry practice.

Industry-standard documentation and a submission template are provided and can be found in the Assessment Tile on your unit website (Moodle).

The completed assignment should adhere to the submission requirements provided in the detailed assignment breakdown on the unit website (Moodle).

Assessment Due Date

Week 12 Thursday (1 June 2023) 11:59 am AEST

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
