General Information

Overview

The purpose of this unit will be to introduce students to a range of economic principles relating to real estate and property issues. The unit will be organised in three main sections. The first section will involve an analysis of why economic, social and environmental problems occur, the second reviews some assessment tools that are available, and the third will involve an overview of urban and regional economic issues, with particular focus on the economics of infrastructure planning.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unit Coordinator

Refine the rubric for Assessment Task One.

Recommendation

The AI stakeholder assessment was a novel addition. It will be continued but as part of ongoing refinement a revised and more detailed rubric will be provided.

Feedback from Student Evaluation of Unit

'Enjoyed the course. [Lecturer] does a great job presenting the workshops. Feedback is timely. Expectations are clear. Content is thorough but not overwhelming.'

Recommendation

Continue the same weekly class (workshop) structure. Use the same feedback approaches with a refined rubric.
