Profile information current as at 05/05/2024 01:35 am

All details in this unit profile for EDCU11033 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit introduces you to socio-cultural theory as a basis for understanding language acquisition and use and for evaluating pedagogical approaches to literacy learning. You will examine “multiliteracies” through the twin dimensions of multimodality and multiple perspectives. An understanding of discourses and the relationship between texts and contexts in developing authentic learning and literacy experiences for first and second language learners at all stages of the school curriculum and prior to formal schooling is explored in depth. You will build an understanding of oracy as a language resource for a growing number of purposes in an increasing range of situations and value children as communicators with a repertoire of practices for making and constructing meaning including the use of Arts symbol systems and ICTs. You will analyse and plan for the use of teaching and learning practices that promote effective interaction with learners and enhance language use, oracy and creativity through engagement with literature and aesthetic meaning making processes in the early years and formal learning contexts.

Written Assessment

Task Description

Individual Written Response:

You will create an individual written response of no more than 1500 words that discusses the claim made by Martello in the following quote: "Teachers' recognition of the multimodal practices available to children through their homes, communities and popular culture enriches and extends the possibilities for literacy teaching" (Martello, 2007). Your response must define and explain current perspectives on literacy, and link these views to the teaching practices that underpin early language and literacy learning in educational settings. In order to prepare you to complete your written response, you are required to compile a portfolio that includes four handouts that summarize four key readings introduced in weeks 2-5. Links to the four key readings will be provided in the Multiliteracies Moodle site along with instructions outlining how to structure your handouts. The portfolio must be submitted as an appendix with your written response.

Assessment Due Date

15 December 2021, 11.45PM

2 Practical and Written Assessment

Assessment Type

Practical and Written Assessment

Task Description

This task consists of two parts: Part A and Part B as outlined below. All students MUST complete both Part A and Part B. Part B consists of two alternatives. Students may choose either Option 1 or Option 2 depending on whether the strategies and activities are implemented in a real world context or not.

Part A

Choose a children's picture book suitable for use with either of the following groups: 3-5 year old children prior to formal schooling; or, children in an early years classroom (Prep, Year 1 or Year 2); and complete all of the sections of the task as outlined below.

1. Summarise the information you gain from (i) the illustrations (ii) the written text and (iii) the illustrations and written texts combined. In your summary, you need to consider (a) The mood of the book; (b) what the images and the text tell or not tell about the topic of the story or information; and (c) the characters, setting and plot.
2. Reflect on the experiences or knowledge that helped you to construct your understanding of the text and consider whether all children in the chosen group would interpret the the story in the same way. Explain why or why not.
3. Using the picture book as a starting point, describe a range of activities and strategies you could use to enhance children's competence as "symbol users". Your selected planning ideas should include: Activities based on a range of expressive and interpretive modes such as drama, media activities, use of ICTs, visual art activities, expressive movement or any other modes for making and communicating meaning; and Strategies that draw on the learning outcomes of the Early Years Learning Framework or the literacy capabilities of the Australian Curriculum to specifically target the development of the learners' use and understanding of oral and written language.

Part B

Option 1. (Choose this option if you do not have the opportunity to trial your planned activities with children).

Write a short justification (500 words) explaining how your selected strategies are responsive to diverse linguistic, social and cultural backgrounds and make connections between home, community and school-based literacy practices.

Option 2. (Choose this option if you trialed some or all of your planned activities in an authentic setting).

Write a short evaluation (500 words) explaining how children responded to your planned activities and teaching strategies in ways that promoted oracy and contributed to their literacy development.

Assessment Due Date

Week 12 Wednesday (9 Feb 2022) 11:45 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

Feedback on this assessment response will be provided in accordance with university policy prior to certification of grades.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
