General Information

Overview

Communication in Educational Environments introduces students to the importance of interpersonal communication and social skills in contemporary education and care settings characterised by diversity. Students develop an understanding of the links between effective verbal and non-verbal communication skills, cultural sensitivity and teacher efficacy; and explain the importance of using these strategies to engage with culturally diverse groups including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander learners and their families. Both analytical and practical knowledge of interpersonal skills and constructive communication strategies that establish collaborative relationships with learners, parents and carers and colleagues to support learning and engagement and maximise educational opportunities for all students are emphasised in this unit.

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Turnitin Reports and subsequent reports to the Academic Integrity Unit.

Feedback

There were continued problems with plagiarism from the exemplars for both AT1 and AT2.

Recommendation

Provide scaffolded 'How Tos' for each assignment. AT1 already includes a checklist for the portfolio items. Both tasks include supplementary documents to help students unpack the criteria sheets.
