Assessment Type

Report

Task Description

This assessment requires a detailed review of a current educational setting disability and inclusive education agenda, improvement initiative, plan or project with reference to the academic literature. This assessment task is to be presented as a report of 2500 words with references.

In the report, you are to provide:

a) Background information on the school/ centre needs to be included, which includes data such as information from the MySchool website <https://www.myschool.edu.au/>, school/ centre reviews, school data sets related to student performance, community information from the Australian Bureau of Statistics, etc. The analysis of the context should include the school's governance structure. For example; does the school have a council or board, is it part of a system and organisational structures, particularly if it is a large organisation.

- b) A SWOT analysis of the current situation, referencing current educational literature (i.e. does the initiative align to research on school improvement). Where is the school in terms of disability and inclusive education? How do you know that there is an area that needs improvement? What data is informing the decision to pursue this issue/ challenge/ improvement area?
- c) Recommendations to the school board and/or leadership team on any gaps in the initiative or improvements that could be made that would increase the likelihood of positive impacts on students and their learning around disability and inclusive education. As well, mention how you think you will measure the impact of the changes suggested.

2 Disability and Inclusive Education Innovation Plan

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Based on the recommendations and findings from the first assessment piece you are now going to design the positive change/ innovation for disability and inclusive education for the educational setting that you examined in the first assessment piece. This assessment task is to be presented as a written assignment of 2000 words with references.

You will need to outline what the gap is that has been identified, what positive change/ innovation you have identified will fill this gap including information around how implementation of this change or innovation will occur, why you chose this innovation or change as well as information on how you will assess whether there will be any impact of the changes made.

Remember it needs to be an innovative change, so make sure that you are thinking outside the box and aiming to solve a problem or area of concern that you explored in the first assessment. Perhaps technology is going to be used/implemented. Perhaps you are using a new learning design/ technique, perhaps you are changing transitions at school. Look at the problem that you see within your educational setting that relates to inclusive education and work out how you could use an innovative tool, technique, or idea to solve this problem.

If need be, you can include labelled diagrams, pictures or the like to add to your argument or explain your concept better.

Provide a justification for the changes basing your argument on current educational literature, practices and/ or policies that will inform your decision/s.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
