General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will explore how First Nations' cultures and ways of learning connect and interact with those experienced in university settings. You will begin by analysing the concepts of culture and identity, then examine First Nations cultures, identities, and approaches to learning alongside university culture and learning practices. Building on this understanding, you will evaluate strategies for integrating these different ways of learning to create respectful and inclusive educational experiences. Throughout the unit, you will also how your own personal values can support respectful engagement and acceptance of diversity within Australia.
