General Information

Overview

In this unit, Interns in Catholic school settings participate in all aspects of teaching, learning and engagement with the school community during a sustained period of professional practice. You will take an active role in all aspects of the professional work of teachers while enhancing your religious literacy and understanding of both the knowledge components of the Catholic religion and its living components (or “practice”) within broader Catholic communities. In your role as an intern, you will collect evidence of your understanding of, and engagement with, the people, places, resources and language of Religious Education in contemporary Catholic school settings. You will develop a personal professional philosophy that expresses an understanding of your role in Catholic schools as places of learning and your responsibilities for engagement with faith communities that value and practice social justice principles as a way of expressing and living out Christian beliefs. The internship is designed as a guided partnership between you (the intern) and a mentor teacher. This placement supports your transition from pre-service teacher to an autonomous, collaborative, reflective educator who can consistently demonstrate the knowledge, skills and dispositions described in the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (Graduate Career Stage) and a secure understanding of the roles and responsibilities of teachers in the Catholic Education system.

Assessment Tasks

1 Written Assessment

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Part A: Throughout the period of the Internship, collect artefacts or evidence that show your understanding of the nature of Catholic schools as particular places of learning. You may include photographs, observation notes on liturgies, school / community practices or other relevant experiences, records of interviews or discussions with key staff involved in religious education (e.g. the APRE), extracts from school mission statements, etc.

The final portfolio should be organised into a format suitable for submission in electronic form. (Please note that further details about the portfolio will be provided during the intensive for this unit and zoom sessions scheduled throughout the Internship period as arranged with key personnel at the school site.)

The selection of artefacts in your portfolio should identify the role and responsibilities of different people who are involved in effective religious education in Catholic schools and that characterise the purpose of Catholic education in Rockhampton Diocese as outlined in the Diocesan Learning Framework. These artefacts should show knowledge of local documents related to teaching religion as well as visible evidence (e.g. images, icons, school mission statements, etc) of the ways in which the nature and purpose of religious education is enacted at your school site.

Part B: Using your experience of working as an Intern in a contemporary Catholic school, write a critical reflection that encompasses a personal professional philosophy on your role as a teacher within the Catholic Education system. The reflection must refer to the artefacts you have collected in your portfolio of evidence and respond to the question posed by Maurice Ryan (1997, p.2) in Foundations of religious education in Catholic schools: "Is the (Catholic) school meant to be a place of nurture for people in the Christian faith, or is it meant to teach an understanding of Christianity in particular and religion in general?" This reflection should be no more than 750 words.

Assessment Due Date

The written assessment is due one week after completion of the Internship. The Week 10 date provided is consistent with the scheduled date for completion on the 2017 Professional Practice Calendar

Return Date to Students

Feedback on this task will be returned to students following moderation and in line with the university policy on certification of grades.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
