ENAR11001 Resource Geology

Term 1 - 2022

Profile information current as at 24/04/2024 12:53 pm

All details in this unit profile for ENAR11001 have been officially approved by CQUUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit is an introduction to geological resources - metals, minerals, coal, oil and gas, and construction materials. It prepares you to assess, and effectively communicate the geological setting, quality and grade of geological resources. The unit balances this with consideration of infrastructure and methods of accessing and extracting the geological resources in a socially, culturally and environmentally responsible manner. You will work individually and collaboratively to consider resource geology issues. You will investigate resource geology in a defined context and carry out standard sampling strategies and apply techniques for locating resources, grade control and resource estimation.

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes - in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Verbal communication.

Feedback

To offer a field trip with mine visit.

Recommendation

Will offer a Residential School with a field trip for updated offering, ENAR13001 Economic Geology in 2022.

Feedback from Verbal communication.

Feedback

To access geology software as used on mine sites

Recommendation

Will seek funding to purchase this software from School.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Discuss the fuel, ore and industrial mineral resources in Australia
2. Identify and describe fuel, ore and industrial minerals and the typical characteristics of such mineral deposits
3. Describe mineral exploration methods and their application
4. Describe processes used to evaluate and quantify mineral reserves
5. Identify impacts of mining exploration in a socially, culturally and environmentally sensitive manner
6. Prepare project reports and demonstrate an effective, professional level of teamwork and communication, and support collaborative peer group learning.

This unit assists students to develop the Engineers Australia Stage 1 competencies for Engineering Associates targeting knowledge and skill base, engineering application ability and professional and personal attributes.
