

ENEV12002 Community and Indigenous Engagement

Term 3 - 2019

Profile information current as at 30/04/2024 10:12 am

All details in this unit profile for ENEV12002 have been officially approved by CQUUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit you will critique approaches to community and Indigenous engagement within the environmental management sector. You will study aspects of post-colonialism, sustainable environmental management and cultural heritage, as well as examine applied stakeholder relationships and adaptive management approaches. Drawing on transdisciplinary perspectives from Aboriginal studies, community development, history, planning, and sociology, you will learn to evaluate the requirements of community and Indigenous engagement, and develop a professional approach to this aspect of environmental management.

- Online

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes - in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Assessment Overview

1. Portfolio

Weighting: 40%

2. Written Assessment

Weighting: 60%

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Students

Feedback

Improved feedback was requested by students, especially around Assessment 1. Students also asked for more detailed feedback.

Recommendation

The lecturer will take more time to provide more detailed feedback on Assessment 1. Feedback will include more direction on how improvements can be made, or links to writing resources that address the shortfall in that section of student work.

Feedback from Students/Staff

Feedback

Inconsistency in Unit Profile, Moodle Page, location of assessment materials (e.g. Forum Post links) and referencing requirements.

Recommendation

More effort will be put into making sure the Unit Profile and Moodle page use consistent terminology and that the Forum Post Links are more consistently located in addition to other minor improvements. The lecturer will take care to look at referencing requirements for CA42 (Environmental Science) in which this unit is core, while also recognising that other courses with different reference requirements take use this unit.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Discuss the importance of cultural and historical awareness of Indigenous engagement within Australia and overseas
2. Identify the implications of top-down/bottom-up approaches to engagement in environmental management
3. Develop basic community and Indigenous engagement plans based on adaptive management principles
4. Prepare an engagement section of an environmental management planning report
5. Critique the key issues that shape contemporary discourses of community and Indigenous engagement.

Assessment Tasks

1 Reading summary and analysis

Assessment Type

Portfolio

Task Description

Prepare a portfolio that summarises and discusses peer reviewed journal articles on the theme of Community and Indigenous Engagement.

1. Summarise three peer reviewed journal articles, preferably from the lecture readings list, using the principles of reading scientific writing discussed in Week 1 (refer to Lecture 1b 'Reading and note taking' for tips on summarising journal articles).
2. Prepare a short introduction that sets the context of the portfolio and identifies the main issues.
3. Write a brief discussion that draws links between the content of the papers and the concepts studied in weeks 1 to 4. Total word count in 1000-1200 words, not including references.

The aim of this assessment is to introduce you to communication, critical thinking and analysis, which are all essential skills for your university studies. The desired outcome of the task is to help you in the process of reading, understanding and interpreting concepts and arguments, and knowing how to apply these skills in an academic context. Group discussion and analysis of the readings will take place throughout the term and help to engage and guide you through the reading material.

Further details are provided on the Moodle site.

Assessment Due Date

Return Date to Students

Week 11 Monday (3 Feb 2020)

Weighting

40%

Minimum mark or grade

Minimum mark or grade - A grade of 40% or higher must be obtained to complete the unit

Assessment Criteria

Marks for this assessment will be awarded as follows:

- 20% for participation in a group discussion (either in online forum or in real-time on zoom). Consideration will be given to the quality of your contributions - did you address the topic and demonstrate engagement with the reading material and the class discussion.
- 10% Presentation - the reading summary and analysis is clearly presented, easy to follow, with all the essential elements included in the title page (name, date, title, course number, assessment number). Correct grammar, spelling and punctuation must be used.
- 15% Introduction - context and identification of main issues.
- 30% Summary of readings (10% for each reading) - one reading per page, discusses aim of paper, take home message, example from reading (if relevant) and your own interpretation, judgement or comment.
- 20% Discussion - highlights the main points, compares information from 2 or more sources, links papers to course content. Includes a brief conclusion.
- 5% Referencing - follows the Harvard style in-text, as headings for each article and in list of references.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
