Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Have your say survey

Feedback

Industry sessions sometimes encroached on the time available to explore the weekly lecture material in depth.

Recommendation

Industry sessions should be more intentionally aligned with weekly lecture topics or scheduled in designated industry-focused weeks to preserve adequate time for core content delivery. Recorded industry lectures will be made available on Moodle to allow students to revisit industry perspectives at their own pace and better integrate them with lecture material.

Feedback

Students noted that beginning online sessions with structured weekly check-ins helped them feel more prepared and confident to participate actively in Q&A discussions.

Recommendation

The practice of embedding structured check-ins at the commencement of online sessions should be maintained, as it supports student preparedness and contributes to increased engagement and active participation during Q&A.
