ENVR12002 Applied Ecology

Term 2 - 2026

Profile information current as at 08/01/2025 09:22 pm

All details in this unit profile for ENVR12002 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

Applied Ecology is the science of understanding and managing natural living resources. Over-harvesting of exploited species, habitat loss, and the spread of invasive species are among the world's most pressing environmental issues. Solutions to these problems are complex, but firmly embedded in the fundamental tenets of ecological knowledge and theory. This unit will provide you with a broad perspective of the field of applied ecology by working across different ecological levels (ecosystem, community, population and species) and issues, in the process you will explore how ecological knowledge and theory is applied to the management of natural living resources.

- Rockhampton

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE Unit comment report.

Feedback

Students stated that they learnt a lot from the practical block and provided feedback that residential school was well paced and contributed to understanding of real world practices and improved skill in the area of environmental ecology.

Recommendation

The residential school will continue to focus on the development of real world applied skill sets relevant to environmental science practices.

Feedback from SUTE Unit comment report.

Feedback

Student feedback stated that this subject was very well done and clear.

Recommendation

Continue the use of multi-channel communication as means of supporting clarity in the delivery of information.
