Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE and informal student feedback

Feedback

Some students were unable to complete all workbook activities during the Residential School due to time constraints, and therefore were missing results required for the on-campus workbook.

Recommendation

It is recommended that daily schedule of the Residential School be revised to enable students to partake in all activities and collect individual data required for the workbooks.

Feedback from Self-reflection

Feedback

Student engagement and participation in the skill development program (Portfolio assessment task) was poor.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the assessment requirements are revised to improve engagement on this task.
