Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE and self-reflection

Feedback

Some activities during the Residential School could be completed as an online tutorial which would provide opportunity for more hands on tasks.

Recommendation

It is recommended that written based activities from the Residential School be delivered online prior to the Residential School session, where possible.

Feedback from Self-reflection

Feedback

Introduction of coaching and instructional skills was useful for developing students the ability to design and present skill sessions.

Recommendation

It is recommended that coaching and instructional strategies continue to be included in this unit to develop coaching/teaching skills of students.
