General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will enhance your professional development in exercise and sport science by becoming a reflective practitioner. Additionally, you will gain authentic practical exercise delivery via work integrated learning, as well as practically focused assessments, which will allow you to gain the skills that are required of a graduating exercise and sport science professional. This will involve working with a variety of populations under the supervision of appropriate health or exercise and sport science practitioners, during which time you will further develop your skills in the development and delivery of exercise and sports science related activities.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Have Your Say survey

Feedback

Students commented that the Reflective Practice portions of this unit are helpful and have provided them with good tools to continue their development as professionals and Practitioners.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Reflective Practice content in this unit is maintained and updated to ensure students are receiving up to date knowledge and skills related to this important and often overlooked field in allied health.

Feedback from Have Your Say survey

Feedback

Students commented that the content of this unit was very helpful to real world scenarios and that the lectures and Zoom drop-in sessions were well delivered.

Recommendation

It is recommended to continue delivering the lectures in a similar format. As lectures are all released at the start of the term, this enables students on placement more flexibility in accessing the content when it works for them. It is also recommended to continue hosting weekly Zoom drop-in sessions as this enables the Unit Coordinator to directly discuss assessment items and student questions and concerns in an interactive format.

Feedback from Unit Coordinator

Feedback

Due to the high amount of practical requirements in this unit, including Work Integrated Learning and Practical Assessments during the residential school, this unit may be better suited as an ungraded pass/fail unit.

Recommendation

It is recommended the Unit Coordinator discuss changes relating to this unit being converted to pass/fail instead of graded with the Head of Course, Teaching and Learning, and other academic staff to determine the suitability of this change.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Prepare professional documentation related to employment in the exercise and sport science industry
2. Reflect on performance and experiences in the exercise and sport science industry
3. Conduct the duties of an exercise and sport science practitioner in a professional setting.

Assessment Tasks

1 Exercise and Sport Science Practical Assessments

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

In this practical assessment task you will further develop your skills in accordance with Exercise and Sports Science Australia's standards. These standards include, but are not limited to; Health Exercise and Sport Assessment, Health Exercise and Sport Psychology, Motor Control and Learning, Exercise Physiology, Biomechanics, and Functional Anatomy. This assessment task has a compulsory residential school, where you will be given the opportunity to further develop and be assessed on the skills that you have learnt throughout the Exercise and Sport Sciences Course. You will be provided with case studies that will form the basis for your assessment. The case studies will be assigned to you at the beginning of the residential school. Prior to attending the residential school you will need to familiarise yourself with client screening, tests, and assessments (practical assessments) from which you must choose as appropriate for the provided case studies, as aligned to the components listed below. This is so that you can make best use of the designated practice times on the first day of the residential school. During the practical assessments you will conduct your chosen screening and/or tests/assessments, interpret data from the results, answer questions regarding your test selection and performance, and develop recommendations in the form of SOAP notes (Subjective, Objective, Assessment, Plan). You will be provided with information regarding the available pre-screening tools, tests, assessments, and SOAP notes via the unit Moodle website and lectures. Following the completion of your practical assessments, you are required to create and submit handover notes associated with the outcomes of the practical assessment that you performed, following the SOAP notes format. All of these tasks are performed and assessed individually. The practical assessments aligned to ESSA Standards that you may be assessed on include the following five (5) components:

1. Health Assessment and Health Exercise and Sport Psychology: Undertaking a pre-screening with a client and questioning them about their goals and motivation to exercise, pre-screening practical assessments may include taking blood pressure, height, weight, body fat percentage, and/or capillary blood samples for the assessment and interpretation of blood glucose, cholesterol or blood lactate, or other assessments as related to your case study
2. Motor Control and Learning: These practical assessments may include balance tests (star excursion, balance error scoring system), multi-directional reach test, pegboard test, dual tasking, and postural stability, or other as related to your case study
3. Exercise Physiology and Exercise and Sport Assessment: These practical assessments may include performing a graded exercise test and taking and analysing capillary blood samples, performing tests for speed agility and/or power, setting up and calibrating a metabolic cart and/or a 12 lead ECG, or other assessments as related to your case study
4. Biomechanics and Functional Anatomy: These practical assessments may include analysing an exercise or movement using an app on a mobile device (e.g. iPad or tablet) or computer, electronic timing lights, or a force plate and assessing measures such as joint angles, force, and/or velocity, performing a movement screen or functional test, for example a modified Thomas Test, overhead squat, Apley's scratch test, or other assessments as related to your case study
5. Handover SOAP notes: You will be required to write a brief summary in the form of SOAP notes for each of the above practical assessment components

Your handover SOAP notes are due Friday of Week 6 (27 August 2021) 5:00 pm AEST.

Residential school dates and times are available via the CQU Handbook Timetable and as listed above in the Term Specific Information section. Further information relating to this assessment task, including a residential school schedule, is available on the unit Moodle website.

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Friday (27 Aug 2021) 5:00 pm AEST

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
