General Information

Overview

In this unit you will examine the interaction between people and the environment in the Australian setting from a historical perspective. You will explore the underlying reasons why and how successive generations have used, shaped and impacted the natural environment, noting their goals, values and technologies. You will develop skills in using environmental histories as a means of problem solving for better resource management, environmental protection and policy-making.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.
