Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Feedback given by two Students in the form of MyExperience responses.

Feedback

Satisfaction scores on 10 and 21 September 2024

Recommendation

As these scores reflect high levels of satisfaction during the term, the metrics in the end of term student evaluations need to be addressed with improvements to unit requirements clarity, usefulness of content, knowledge and skills, and assessment feedback by returning to textbooks.

Feedback from Self- reflection

Usefulness of learning materials needs improving

Recommendation

Prescribed an updated Estate Planning textbook for 2025.

Feedback from Recommendations by CQU Learning Design & innovation team, discussions with Discipline colleagues from the Economics, Finance, Property Disciplines

Low content engagement, especially pre-recorded content video recordings, because they are considered too long by students

Recommendation

"Chunking" video recordings by topic instead of one long pre-recorded content video
