Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

Assessment Tasks

1 Online Discussion

Assessment Type

Online discussion forum

Task Description

The assessment is to participate in an online discussion forum. It links to the learning outcome of 'discussion and description of the key concepts and themes of human geography'. You are to write 4 posts and 2 responses to other fellow student's posts. Each post should be 50-70 words in length. Detailed instructions and support are provided in the unit's Moodle site.

Assessment Due Date

Posts must be made during the period from week 1 to week 12. Posts submitted after week 12 (11:30pm, Sunday) will not assess.

Return Date to Students

All posts will be evaluated by the end of the term.

Weighting

Assessment Criteria

Your posts will be evaluated based on quantity (number of posts and responses) and quality of the posts and their contributions to learning and discussion. Detailed marking criteria is provided on unit's Moodle site.

2 Map Report

Assessment Type

Report

Task Description

The assessment is to explore the importance of map in human geographic inquiry. It requires you to find two different web sites from which you can access maps and download one map from each of the websites. The scale of the area represented by each map should be different. For example, one map is of a country and the other one is of a region (or a community). The maps can deal with the same or different themes of human geography. For each map, you need to explain what the map shows and determine how it contributes to your understanding of aspects of human geography. The report should be 1,800 –2,000 words in length. Detailed instructions and support are provided on the unit's Moodle site.

Assessment Due Date

Week 7 Friday (4 Sept 2020) 11:45 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

Assessments will be marked and returned in two weeks after the due date or as soon as practicable.

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

Your reports will be assessed based on

- Quality of maps chosen, including illustrations and appropriateness of mapping subjects;
- Interpretation of mapping information, including applications of relevant human geographic concepts to answer questions of what, where and why;
- Competency of communications, including structure, English expression and citation.

A marking rubric will be provided in the unit's moodle site.

3 Term Paper

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

The assessment is to write a term research paper. In this paper, you should discuss and evaluate the geographical dimensions of one or a combination of two or more of the following human geography topics: Population, migration, race, politics, land use, farming, urban and industrial space, development, health, globalisation, sustainability etc. The paper should have a clear focus and the scale of which can range from the local to the national, regional or global. The paper should be 2,200 – 2,500 words in length.

Detailed instructions and support are provided in the unit's Moodle site.

Assessment Due Date

Week 12 Friday (9 Oct 2020) 11:45 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

Assessments will be marked and returned in the end of the term.

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

Your papers will be evaluated based on:

- Depth and breadth of the research on the selected topics;
- Evidence of applying geographical approaches to understanding of the topics, including use of maps and other visual and graphical data;
- Knowledge and skills demonstrated to identify and explain geographic patterns and/or spatial relations;
- Effective communication, including organisation, English expression and citation of the research paper.

A marking rubric will be provided in the unit's moodle site.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
