The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

Corrections

Unit Profile Correction added on 07-03-22

Between Weeks 1 and 5, there will be stimulus material and a prompting question placed in the "General Discussion" forum on moodle. Students are expected to engage thoughtfully with this material and respectfully with each other. Students are encouraged to post a comment every week but for this assessment students must post at least two (2) comments on two different weeks in the discussion forum. In addition, students are expected to read and engage with their fellow students and must post at least two (2) replies to comments from other students. The comments need to be at least a few sentences long but should not exceed two paragraphs. The comments should indicate that the student has listened to the lecture and thought carefully about the question. The two replies should indicate that they engaged with the forum in a respectful manner. Students are required to submit one self assessment and will be assigned a fellow student to complete a peer assessment on using the marking rubric.

General Information

Overview

This unit provides you with a broad survey of world history in the twentieth century. There is no doubt that the modern world has been profoundly shaped by this often bloody century, sometimes called the age of extremes. In this unit, you will examine the decline of European influence, the devastation of the world wars, the collapse of colonial structures and the emergence of independent states in Asia and Africa, and the rise (and fall) of two super powers, the USA and the USSR. You will be asked to consider the emergence of conflicting ideologies: communism, fascism, Zionism, pan-Arabism and political Islam. This unit is designed to equip you with a comprehensive understanding of the forces that have shaped the modern world order.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from moodle, survey, email

Feedback

Students have expressed a very high level of satisfaction with this unit through the unit survey and other correspondence.

Recommendation

Student feedback has been extremely positive for this unit. This unit will maintain its current structure as it has proved very popular.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Develop a broad knowledge of the history of international relations in the 20th Century
2. Foster unprejudiced knowledge of the history of international relations in the 20th Century and acceptance of the informed opinions of others
3. Identify some of the key problems in the history of international relations in the 20th Century and their elucidation by evidence-based research
4. Develop historical skills including the ability to locate and analyse historical evidence and the ability to critique historical interpretations and their applications to contemporary global issues.

Assessment Tasks

1 Online Quiz

Assessment Type

Online Quiz(zes)

Task Description

Through the Moodle unit website, you will undertake a quiz consisting of twenty (20) questions to test your understanding and knowledge of historical issues that have been raised in the unit so far. The questions are based on the lectures so make sure you take good notes. They are comprised of true/false, one or two word responses (e.g. a name or term), and multi-choice with four options. The quiz must be completed within one (1) hour and on the first attempt. Online Quiz 1 will open on Monday 4 April and must be completed by Friday 8 April at 11:45 pm AEST. See the Assessment Block in Moodle for further details.

2 Group Discussion

Assessment Type

Group Discussion

Task Description

Between Weeks 1 and 5, there will be stimulus material and a prompting question placed in the “General Discussion” forum on moodle. Students are expected to engage thoughtfully with this material and respectfully with each other. Students are encouraged to post a comment every week but for this assessment students must post at least two (2) comments on two different weeks in the discussion forum. In addition, students are expected to read and engage with their fellow students and must post at least two (2) replies to comments from other students. The comments need to be at least a few sentences long but should not exceed two paragraphs. The comments should indicate that the student has listened to the lecture and thought carefully about the question. The two replies should indicate that they engaged with the forum in a respectful manner. Students are required to submit one self assessment and will be assigned a fellow student to complete a peer assessment on using the marking rubric. Your final grade for this assessment will be the average of your mark and the mark your peer assessor assigns you. You may appeal the mark given by your peer assessor if you believe it does not match the marking rubric. The Unit Co-ordinator will adjudicate and adjust the final mark if appropriate.

Assessment Due Date

Vacation Week Friday (15 Apr 2022) 11:45 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

Week 7 Friday (29 Apr 2022)

If the self and peer assessments are submitted on time they can be returned to the student within 2 days. However, if the peer assessment is not received within two weeks the unit coordinator will step in and assign a mark.

Weighting

Assessment Criteria

Please refer to the marking rubric on Moodle for full details. To achieve high marks in this assessment a student must:

- 1 .Post at least two outstanding comments of an appropriate length which are sophisticated and logical with clear evidence that the student has listened to and understood the lecture and have skilfully and thoughtfully responded to the stimulus question.
2. Post at least two reply comments which are knowledgeable, well-written and highly respectful of other users on the forum.

3 Major Essay

Assessment Type

Essay

Task Description

Select ONE (1) of the essay questions on Moodle and answer it in an essay of 2000 words (10% variation is acceptable).

References and bibliography must be included in the Turabian referencing style. Before commencing this task you should refer to the essay-writing and referencing guides provided on the HIST19038 Moodle website.

Thorough research requires that you look beyond your set textbook, Best et al. CQUni Library holds a range of 20th Century history books and there are additional resources in the Digital Readings (DRs) on Moodle. You should also search the CQUni Library databases for relevant scholarly articles on the topic of your choice. Only use articles from peer-reviewed journals or other reputable academic sources, and be sure to provide accurate citations (footnotes). In addition to the textbook, you are expected to consult a minimum of six (6) tertiary-standard academic books and/or journal articles in the preparation of the research essay

Before submission, ensure that your research essay meets the assessment criteria listed below.

Assessment Due Date

Week 8 Friday (6 May 2022) 11:45 pm AEST

Submit through the Turnitin link on Moodle.

Return Date to Students

Week 10 Friday (20 May 2022)

Essays will be marked and returned within two weeks of receipt by the Unit Coordinator.

Assessment Criteria

The essays are marked on three principle criteria that can be summarised as CREW. This stands for: Content, Research, and Essay Writing.

Content:

- presentation of accurate, relevant and unbiased historical evidence
- evidence that the relevant(s) lecture has been listened to

Research (and referencing):

- evidence drawn primarily from scholarly texts
- acknowledgement of all sources of ideas/evidence (footnote) and any quotations (footnote and quote marks)
- correct use of the Turabian referencing style

Essay Writing:

- meeting the required number of words, the bulk of which should be own wording
- logical structure/organisation of ideas
- clear, concise and correct written English
- presentation in formal essay style and layout

Learning Outcomes Assessed

- Develop a broad knowledge of the history of international relations in the 20th Century
- Foster unprejudiced knowledge of the history of international relations in the 20th Century and acceptance of the informed opinions of others
- Identify some of the key problems in the history of international relations in the 20th Century and their elucidation by evidence-based research
- Develop historical skills including the ability to locate and analyse historical evidence and the ability to critique historical interpretations and their applications to contemporary global issues.

4 PowerPoint Presentation

Assessment Type

Presentation

Task Description

This assignment requires you to create a PowerPoint presentation with voice over audio. The audio recording should be 10 minutes in length (a 10% variation is acceptable) with between 10 and 20 slides. In this presentation you will answer the following question, "What lessons from the 20th century can help us face problems in the 21st century". To answer this question adequately, you must refer specifically to three different topics in the unit and propose three lessons. In the presentation you must demonstrate that you have engaged with the unit content by quoting relevant sources. Like a footnote in a written essay, whenever you quote or refer to a source, include the bibliographical details on a slide. Feel free to be creative with your slides and include a mixture of dot points, quotes, and images. The final slide of your presentation must be a formal bibliography in Turabian style. As with the first essay, you must consult a minimum of 6 scholarly sources in addition to the textbook.

If you would like to create a video instead or use something other than PowerPoint please email me to discuss. In theory this is fine so long as it answers the question, is 10 minutes, includes at least 10 slides or graphics with notes and references and finishes with a bibliography but please clear this with me first.

Before submission, ensure that your research essay meets the assessment criteria listed below.

Assessment Criteria

The PowerPoint presentation will be marked on a similar criteria to the essay. Content and Research are paramount, along with Presentation.

Content:

- presentation of accurate, relevant and unbiased historical evidence
- evidence that the relevant(s) lecture has been listened to and the textbook has been read

Research (and referencing):

- evidence drawn primarily from scholarly texts
- acknowledgement of all sources of ideas/evidence and any quotations (if you refer to a scholarly text or directly quote from it, include the reference on the slide and in the bibliography)
- correct use of the Turabian referencing style

Presentation:

- audio recording should be 10 minutes long, the bulk of which should be own wording (i.e not just quoting other sources)
- three clear lessons are articulated in a logical and well-structured way
- clear, concise and correct spoken and written English
- presentation style and layout of 10-20 slides is engaging and informative

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
