

HIST28001 Modern Japan

Term 1 - 2024

Profile information current as at 17/05/2024 12:43 pm

All details in this unit profile for HIST28001 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit will present you with an in-depth study of the major themes in modern Japanese history from the Tokugawa period to contemporary times. It will begin with a discussion of Japanese cultural traditions, followed by an overview of the Tokugawa period. In the rest of the unit you will explore: Meiji Japan, the era of Taisho and Showa democracy, the rise of militarism, World War II and the Greater East Asia Co-Prosperity Sphere, the American Occupation, contemporary Japanese politics, economy, society, environment and foreign policy. You will learn, for example, why Japan invaded China, attacked Pearl Harbour and occupied Southeast Asia, and what explains Japan's economic 'miracle'. This unit provides you with an insight into Japan from a historical perspective and will enhance your cultural understanding of one of Australia's most important trading partners.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Assessment Tasks

1 Annotated bibliography

Assessment Type

Research Assignment

Task Description

Students are required to produce an annotated bibliography that demonstrates critical engagement with a total of 7 scholarly journal articles chosen from the learning materials across 7 different weekly topics. Each article requires 5 annotations, with the format of the bibliography detailed in the supplementary material for this assessment task on the Moodle site. The purpose of this assessment task is to provide the research foundation for the essay, which is due in week 12.

The total word count for the annotated bibliography is 1750 words (+ or - 10%). This total is comprised of approximately 250 words of reflection per journal article. A list of several journal articles is provided in the learning materials for each of the weekly topics from week 2 through to week 9 and students are required to choose 1 article per week for a total of 7 weeks to include in the bibliography.

This assessment task is worth 30% of the total grade.

Further details on this assessment are included in the Moodle site and guidelines for how to approach the task will be discussed at length in seminar 1 as well as in learning resources made available on the Moodle site.

Assessment Due Date

Week 9 Friday (10 May 2024) 11:59 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

Week 11 Friday (24 May 2024)

Assessments will be returned to students within 2 weeks after submission

Weighting

30%

Assessment Criteria

The bibliographies will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

1. Comprehension - has the student demonstrated comprehension of the key thesis articulated in the article as evident in their choice of quotations?
2. Critical engagement - has the student engaged critically with the key claims in the article as evident in their annotations attached to at least 5 quotations per journal article?
3. Clarity of exposition - has the student exercised discretion in their choice of quotations as evident in the concise and succinct annotation attached to the quote?

Learning Outcomes Assessed

- Review, analyse and synthesise knowledge concerning major themes in modern Japanese history as well as significant issues related to contemporary Japanese politics, economy, society (including minorities), environment and foreign relations

2 Oral presentation

Assessment Type

Presentation

Task Description

Students are required to deliver an oral presentation of no more than 20 minutes responding to one of the seminar questions listed for discussion in seminars 2-9. The purpose of this task is to generate class discussion that will inform the preparation of the essay assessment task, which is due in week 12.

The presentation will be assessed according to the following criteria:

1. Clarity - how clearly have the ideas that inform the argument articulated in the presentation been expressed?
2. Coherence - the presentation should entail at least 3 key points that relate to a key thesis, which is to be developed iteratively over the course of the presentation. This assessment criteria evaluates the extent to which the thesis and the 3 key points are logically consistent and coherent.
3. Concision - has the presentation articulated a coherent thesis, constituted by at least 3 key points, using precise language and in an engaging manner with brevity.

This assessment accounts for 30% of the overall grade for this unit. Grades will be awarded in the week the presentation is delivered.

Assessment Due Date

Week 9 Friday (10 May 2024) 11:59 pm AEST

Students are required to nominate a weekly topic on which they will deliver a presentation. Once all presentation weeks have been allocated, online seminars will be scheduled at a time convenient for the class so that the presentations can be delivered in the week corresponding to the chosen topics.

Return Date to Students

Week 10 Friday (17 May 2024)

Feedback and grades will be returned to students 1 week after their presentation.

Weighting

30%

Assessment Criteria

3 Essay

Assessment Type

Research Assignment

Task Description

Students are to choose one essay question from the list of questions corresponding to weekly topics and write a 2500 word essay in response (+ or - 10%).

Students are expected to follow the essay-writing and Turabian referencing guides provided in Moodle, in addition to the format and style of the sample essay. 2 weeks of essay workshops in weeks 10 and 11 are designated for class discussion whereby the research material furnished by the annotated bibliography exercise and the feedback from the oral presentation are synthesised to inform the preparation of the essay.

This essay will be graded on the CREW principle (Content, Research, and Essay Writing). Further details on this assessment, including the list of essay questions and guidelines for essay writing, are included on the Moodle site under assessment details.

Assessment Due Date

Week 12 Friday (31 May 2024) 11:59 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

Exam Week Friday (14 June 2024)

Essay grades and feedback will be returned within 2 weeks of submission

Weighting

40%

Assessment Criteria

The essays are marked on a three principle criteria that can be summarised as CREW. This stands for: Content, Research, and Essay Writing.

Content:

- presentation of accurate, relevant and unbiased historical evidence
- evidence that the relevant(s) lecture has been listened to

Research (and referencing):

- evidence drawn primarily from scholarly texts
- acknowledgement of all sources of ideas/evidence (footnote) and any quotations (footnote and quote marks)
- correct use of the Turabian referencing style

Essay Writing:

- meeting the required number of words, the bulk of which should be own wording
- logical structure/organisation of ideas
- clear, concise and correct written English
- presentation in formal essay style and layout

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
